

JUDITH WRIGHT THE CORAL BATTLEGROUND

NEW EDITION

It will come as a surprise to most people that so many of the issues confronted in the 1960s by the doughty campaigners against drilling for oil on the barrier reef are still alive. We will have to be as determined and as persistent as they if we are to protect what is now a World Heritage Site from pollution, dredging, dumping, coral bleaching and pest species.

The Coral Battleground Judith Wright:

The Coral Battleground Judith Wright, 1977 Judith Wright Georgina Arnott, 2022-03-01 Judith Wright 1915 2000 is one of the best known Australian poets of her generation Born into a pioneering bush family her commitments to environmental protection history writing and obtaining recognition for First Nations people drew her in new directions and assumed a major role in her life She was the first president of the Wildlife Preservation Society of Queensland a founder of the Australian Conservation Foundation and a member of the Aboriginal Treaty Commission This selection of her nonfiction the first of its kind brings together essays speeches family history correspondence memoir and criticism to reveal the personal and philosophical threads that bind together her work and life It makes plain the shifts and transformations in her thinking and the female friendships in particular with writer and activist Oodgeroo Noonuccal that opened her to new perspectives and connections This addition to the Australian Thinkers series shows what happens when a poet talks about a nation It reveals a way of thinking about Australia its land history and culture that draws on the best of human possibility Judith Wright and Emily Carr Anne Collett, Dorothy Jones, 2021-01-28 Knitting together two fascinating but entirely distinct lives this ingeniously structured braided biography tells the story of the lives and work of two women each a cultural icon in her own country yet lesser known in the other s Australian poet Judith Wright and Canadian painter Emily Carr broke new ground for female artists in the British colonies and influenced the political and social debates about environment and indigenous rights that have shaped Australia and Canada in the 21st century In telling their story ies this book charts the battle for recognition of their modernist art and vision pointing out significant moments of similarity in their lives and work Although separated by thousands of miles their experience of colonial modernity was startlingly analogous as white settler women bent on forging artistic careers in a male dominated world and sphere rigged against them Through all this though their cultural importance endures two remarkable women whose poetry and painting still speak to us today of their passionate belief in the transformative power of art The Reef Iain McCalman, 2014-05-20 Stretching 1 400 miles along the Australian coast and visible from space the Great Barrier Reef is home to three thousand individual reefs more than nine hundred islands and thousands of marine species and has alternately been viewed as a deadly maze an economic bounty a scientific frontier and a precarious World Heritage site Now the historian and explorer Iain McCalman takes us on a new adventure into the reef to reveal how our shifting perceptions of the natural world have shaped this extraordinary seascape Showcasing the lives of twenty individuals spanning more than two centuries The Reef highlights our profound desire to conquer understand embrace and ultimately save the world s most complex ocean ecosystem Opening with the story of Captain James Cook who sailed unknowingly into the southwest entrance of this vast network of coral outcroppings McCalman shows how Cook spent months navigating this treacherous underwater labyrinth struggling to keep his crew alive and his ship afloat sparring with deceptive shoals and wary native islanders Through a series of dramatic tales from intrepid explorers unwitting castaways

inquisitive naturalists enchanted artists and impassioned environmentalists who have collectively shaped our ideas about the Great Barrier Reef McCalman demonstrates how this grand natural wonder of the world was built as much by human imagination as by the industrious beautiful creatures of the sea A romantic historically significant book and a deeply personal journey into the heart of a marine environment in peril The Reef powerfully captures the delicate relationship between humanity and the natural world

A Reef in Time J.E.N. Veron,2010-03-30 Veron presents the geological history of the Great Barrier Reef the biology of coral reef ecosystems and a primer on what we know about climate change He concludes that most coral reefs will be dead from mass bleaching and irreversible acidification within the coming century unless greenhouse gas emissions are curbed

New Lives of the Saints Rod Giblett,2019-11-13 Presented here for the first time and for meditation and emulation are the words and work of many environmental apostles The words and work of each apostle are designed to delight and inspire the reader to begin or continue to lead a life of environmental action for conservation and contemplation of nature for spiritual succor in the age of climate change All the usual suspects are here such as St Francis Rachel Carson Aldo Leopold John Muir Henry David Thoreau and Judith Wright but New Lives of the Saints emphasizes some aspects of their words and work often ignored or overlooked such as Thoreau on swamps and Leopold on marshes Also included are some unusual and unexpected environmental apostles such as Walter Benjamin Raymond Williams Seamus Heaney and Paul Virilio all of whom contributed to green thinking as this book shows Other environmentally apostolic writers such as Walt Whitman Sidney Lanier Lord Dunsany H P Lovecraft Felix Guattari and Kelly Barnhill are also discussed Beginning with two environmentally and animal friendly retellings of the legends of St George and St Margaret involving dragons the book goes on to devote a chapter each to ten other environmental apostles as patron saints of a special type of environment or of an approach to environmental conservation and contemplation These saints sing the song of the earth including its swamps marshes bogs fens national parks mountains forests oceans seas airs rivers reefs trees cities peoples places plants animals and so on They provide nurture for living a life of hope and symbiotic livelihood living sacrally with the earth New Lives of the Saints crosses the great divide between fiction and non fiction and mixes the genres of story and essay It is a ground breaking work of environmental counter theology for the symbiocene the hoped for age superseding the Anthropocene

Mickelburgh, 2024-09-17 This book explores the way stories that emerge from the garden and are consumed in the digital space can become a nourished method of environmental communication Mickelburgh seeks to understand what happens when some women speak write and photograph their private everyday garden lives and share those stories with a public global digital world The garden is the place people get deeply acquainted with This book considers Australian ecofeminist Val Plumwood's urging for a deep acquaintance with some place or perhaps group of places to discover a communicative language of the land The online world brings us into closer vicinity to this humble space and yet a distance remains This distance the in between is the space where the possibility of communication lies In keeping with its humble focus this book asks simple questions of the garden What happens when Australian women gardeners tell stories of community care and compassion in a space that is both material and digital Does digital soundwork sightwork and wordwork about gardens equate to communicative groundwork This book tries to answer these questions by examining the digital stories of Australian women's gardening lives It aims to engage the reader through its emphasis on showing rather than telling the way affective communication circulates in the physical place memories the body and the digital realm in conversation with the many women writers and feminist scholars concerned with the entanglement of feminism writing the environment and communication Silence is my Habitat Jessica White, 2025-09-30 A tactile and olfactory journey through a silent ecosystem Jessica White has been deaf since she was four years old Where an autobiography or biography narrates the story of a person's life an ecobiography dwells on a person's interaction with their ecosystem and how this shapes their sense of self The essays that follow detail how deafness encouraged and shaped her relationship with the natural world Deafness made me observant and quiet Because I could not hear enough to join in on conversations my attention often wandered or was absorbed by sensations other than sound morning sun on my forearms the thick sweet scent of flowering oleanders the triangular shadow of a flock of galahs flying overhead On the long bus trips between school and home I watched the sorghum

burnishing as it ripened and kangaroos bounding through wheat stubble in the late afternoons into trees that cast long shadows I felt the bus shake as it rattled over cattle grids or veered into the corrugations on the gravel roads These essays consider how deafness shapes the interfaces between the writer and particular environments given how she can only hear particular sounds as she navigates the world through the tactile and olfactory

History of the Australian Environment Movement Drew Hutton, Libby Connors, 1999-04-13 This book presents a history of the value of the Australian environment and the struggles to protect it

Literary Activists, 2009-09 Uniquely examining the link between Australian writers and social change this study investigates the motives behind literary figures who strive to become activists and social intellectuals Exploring this intimate connection this resource asks what such a bond reveals about Australian literature and the power of the written word With fresh insight this guide delves into the activism careers and writings of Judith Wright Patrick White Oodgeroo of the tribe of Noonuccal Les Murray Helen Garner David Malouf and Tim Winton

Global Trade and Mediatized Environmental Protest Libby Lester, 2019-09-12 As more governments companies and individuals scan the globe for access to primary resources such as minerals and timber food power and water and destinations for work holidays and homes pressures on places and communities grow At the same time global environmental risks most notably climate change produce new networks and unfamiliar forms of politics Communication media are integral to this change This book explores how geographically diverse groups and individuals interact in and through media to influence the negotiations and decisions affecting often distant landscapes and communities Drawing on extensive fieldwork in the Australia Asia region the book includes case studies on the environmental protests that follow the international flow of people and resources including timber fish coal water and tourism It asks how communities of concern are evoked which transcend local places and national boundaries

Visitor Encounters with the Great Barrier Reef Celmara Pocock, 2019-08-20 Visitor Encounters with the Great Barrier Reef explores how visitor encounters have shaped the history and heritage of the Reef Moving beyond the visual aesthetic significance the book highlights the importance of multi sensuous experiences in understanding the region as a UNESCO World Heritage Site Drawing on archival and ethnographic research the book describes how visitors have experienced the Great Barrier Reef through personal embodied encounters and the mechanisms they have used to understand access and share these experiences with others Illustrating how such experiences contribute to a knowledge of place Pocock also explores the vital role of reproduction and photography in sharing experiences with those who have never been there The second part of the book analyses visitor experiences and demonstrates how they underpin three key frames through which the Reef is understood and valued the islands as paradise the underwater coral gardens and the singular Great Barrier Reef Acknowledging that these constructs are increasingly removed from human experience Pocock demonstrates that they are nevertheless integral to recognition of the region as a World Heritage Site Demonstrating how experiences of the Reef have changed over time Visitor Encounters with the Great Barrier Reef should be of interest to academics and students working in the fields of heritage studies history and tourism It should also be of interest to heritage practitioners working around the globe
