

The Crucible Act I

Setting the Stage...

In your own words, summarize Judge's notes on the opening of the play.

What is Thomas Putnam's biggest complaint about the new measures of the court?

What are John Proctor's biggest complaints against Parris's sermon?

What is Reverend Hale's biggest complaint about the new measures of the court?

To what does Stiles refer to the end of Act I and why do you think she does this?

Read the following passage aloud to your group, identify characters, setting, and conflict, and answer the questions.

"See me, I beseech me, I beseech you, this cannot look its appearance in this. This hall is precise the marks of the presence and definite its absence, that I must tell you all that I have not proceed unless you are prepared to believe me. If I should find no trace of you again, I am sure."

—Rev. Hale, Act I
