

The Cultural Landscape

The background of the cover is a photograph of a group of women, likely from a West African culture, wearing brightly colored headwraps in shades of red, pink, and yellow. They are looking directly at the camera with neutral expressions. The image is slightly out of focus, emphasizing the colors and the human element of the landscape.

The Cultural Landscape 11th Edition:

The Cultural Landscape James M. Rubenstein, 1996 Dealing with where people and human activities are located why they are situated in particular locations and what significance these observed arrangements represent this text adopts a social science perspective while applying concepts from the physical sciences where needed Cultural Landscapes Richard W. Longstreth, 2008 Preservation has traditionally focused on saving prominent buildings of historical or architectural significance Preserving cultural landscapes the combined fabric of the natural and man made environments is a relatively new and often misunderstood idea among preservationists but it is of increasing importance The essays collected in this volume case studies that include the Little Tokyo neighborhood in Los Angeles the Cross Bronx Expressway and a rural island in Puget Sound underscore how this approach can be fruitfully applied Together they make clear that a cultural landscape perspective can be an essential underpinning for all historic preservation projects Contributors Susan Calafate Boyle National Park Service Susan Buggy U of Montreal Michael Caratzas Landmarks Preservation Commission NYC Courtney P Fint West Virginia Historic Preservation Office Heidi Hohmann Iowa State U Hillary Jenks USC Randall Mason U Penn Robert Z Melnick U of Oregon Nora Mitchell National Park Service Julie Riesenweber U of Kentucky Nancy Rottle U of Washington Bonnie Stepenoff Southeast Missouri State U Richard Longstreth is professor of American civilization and director of the graduate program in historic preservation at George Washington University Instructor's Review Copy

Landscape Interfaces Hannes Palang, G. Fry, 2013-06-29 This book has been initiated by the workshop on Cultural heritage in changing landscapes held during the IALE International Association for Landscape Ecology European Conference that started in Stockholm Sweden in June 2001 and continued across the Baltic to Tartu Estonia in July The papers presented at the workshop have been supported by invited contributions that address a wider range of the cultural heritage management issues and research interfaces required to study cultural landscapes The book focuses on landscape interfaces Both the ones we find out there in the landscape and the ones we face while doing research We hope that this book helps if not to make use of these interfaces then at least to map them and bridge some of the gaps between them The editors wish to thank those people helping us to assemble this collection First of all our gratitude goes to the authors who contributed to the book We would like to thank Marc Antrop Mats Widgren Roland Gustavsson Marion Potschin Barbel Tress Tiina Peil Helen Soovali and Anu Printsman for their quick and helpful advice opinions and comments during the different stages of editing Helen Soovali and Anu Printsman together with Piret Pungas thank you for technical help

The Cultural Landscape & Heritage Paradox Tom Bloemers, Henk Kars, Arnold Van der Valk, 2010 The basic problem is to what extent we can know past and mainly invisible landscapes and how we can use this still hidden knowledge for actual sustainable management of landscape s cultural and historical values It has also been acknowledged that heritage management is increasingly about the management of future change rather than simply protection This presents us with a paradox to preserve our historic environment we have to collaborate with those who wish to transform it and in order to apply our expert knowledge we have to make it suitable for policy and society The answer presented by the Protection and Development of the Dutch Archaeological Historical Landscape programme pdl bbo is an integrative landscape approach which applies inter and transdisciplinarity establishing links between archaeological historical heritage and planning and between research and policy

World Heritage Cultural Landscapes: A Handbook for Conservation and Management gratuit, 2009

The Cultural Landscapes of Port au Choix M. A. P. Renouf, 2011-03-28 Newfoundland lies at the intersection of arctic and more temperate regions and commensurate with this geography populations of two Amerindian and two Paleoeskimo cultural traditions occupied Port au Choix in northern Newfoundland Canada for centuries and millennia Over the past two decades The Port au Choix Archaeology Project has sought a comparative understanding of how these different cultures each with their particular origin and historical trajectory adapted to the changing physical and social environments impacted their physical surroundings and created cultural landscapes This volume brings together the research of Renouf her colleagues and her students who together employ multiple perspectives and methods to provide a detailed reconstruction and understanding of the long term history of Port au Choix Although geographically focussed on a northern coastal area this volume has wider implications for understanding archaeological landscapes human environment interactions and hunter gatherer societies

The Conservation of Cultural Landscapes Mauro Agnoletti,2006-10-23 Landscape today is no longer just a cultural aspect intended as an elitist phenomenon but emerges as an essential element in the definition and the application of a modern approach in sustainable development Historical locally adapted distinctive and ingenious combinations of management practices have contributed and continue to contribute tremendously to the biodiversity of the world resulting not only in outstanding aesthetic beauty but in the sustained provision of multiple goods and services food and livelihood security and quality of life The development of policies to preserve and manage landscape resources has to face both the degradation of cultural landscape due to socio economic development and the need to develop appropriate methods and approaches This book presents different methodologies developed to analyse manage and plan landscape resources It reports recent research findings and case studies from Europe and North America suggesting also the revision of some orientations and views of the current policies concerning forestry rural development and nature conservation often contributing to degrade cultural landscapes

Cultural Landscapes of South Asia Kapila Silva,Amita Sinha,2016-10-14 Winner of the Environmental Design Research Association s 2018 Achievement Award The pluralism of South Asia belies any singular reading of its heritage In spite of this diversity its cultural traditions retain certain attributes that are at their core South Asian in their capacity to self organize enact and reinvent cultural memories and in their ability to retain an intimate connection with nature and landscape This volume focuses on the notion of cultural landscape as a medium integrating multiple forms of heritage and points to a new paradigm for conservation practices in the South Asian context Even though the construct of cultural landscape has been accepted as a category of heritage its potent use in heritage management in general and within the South Asian context in particular has not been widely studied The volume challenges the prevalent views of heritage management in South Asia that are entrenched in colonial legacies and contemporary global policy frameworks

Geoinformation Technologies for Geo-Cultural Landscapes: European Perspectives Andreas Vassilopoulos,Niki Evelpidou,Oliver Bender,Alenka Krek,2008-12-04 The focal main objective of the book is to constitute a meaningful linkage among research problems geoinformation methods and corresponding applications The research goals related both to theoretical and practical issues derive from multidisciplinary fields such as archaeology history geography landscape planning environment geoinformation

Cultural Heritage—Possibilities for Land-Centered Societal Development Józef Hernik, Maria Walczycka, Edward Sankowski, Betty J. Harris, 2021-12-08 This book includes multi national research studies social and natural science research as well as more directly practical university based knowledge about cultural heritage land and societal development in varied countries The book is particularly about land use as a fundamental aspect of the environment and its role in development especially sustainable development Many of the studies are about topics concerning the transition from more rural to more urbanized land areas However some studies concern other types of changes This includes general attention to globalization and nation state dimensions of change Nonetheless there are interpretations communicated of unique histories at differing scales in the researches here There is often a focus on more uniquely local and regional territories including attention to smaller scale land use and an interest in future possibilities that conserve positive features of past terrain Wcsworld

Regional Geography 11th Edition with Lecture Notes for Tarrant County College John a Hannah Professor of Geography Harm J De Blij, 2004-12-31 Understanding Cultural Landscapes Rachel Hunt, Ben Garlick, 2025-11-27 Understanding Cultural Landscapes provides an introduction to the range of approaches characterising the study of landscape and culture This textbook discusses the origins underpinnings and practical applications of social science and humanities scholarship concerning landscape and its theorisation The book offers an easy to digest introduction to relevant approaches and ideas in the study of landscape The text includes practical real world examples drawn from a range of social science and humanities disciplines to showcase the interpretation of landscape by different means and to different ends Pauses for thought encourage the reader to reflect and connect ideas and debates to examples encountered in their own life and work Suggested activities support independent study and aid the design and delivery of university teaching Each chapter also includes suggested readings and the textbook includes discussion of research methods for those developing their own research projects This book will be valuable for both students and educators encountering or teaching the study of landscape within the humanities and social sciences for the first time The incorporation of practical exercises and suggested reading enables the book to supplement independent study or be used as a teaching aid

Countryside Planning Kevin Bishop, Adrian Phillips, 2004 Not since the 19th century has the future of the countryside been such a focus of political and public attention nor of profound uncertainty and anguished debate A watershed has now been reached and in this time of unprecedented change new tools are needed for planning and managing the countryside Increasingly the drivers of countryside management and conservation are European and international They aim to provide comprehensive new frameworks for the whole countryside and encourage community driven planning and protection There have been numerous responses at the country and local levels within the UK In this book a broad range of scholars and practitioners review the international drivers affecting countryside policy and practice and through a variety of case studies they assess the value of country and local responses The result is a powerful and coherent volume that provides a fully up to date review and analysis of the pressures on the countryside the policies for the future and the keys to successful implementation Countryside Planning is essential reading for planners local authorities and rural organizations conservationists and environmental groups as well as academics and students in planning rural studies environmental studies and geography

Everyday America Chris Wilson, Paul Erling Groth, 2003-02 A collection of seventeen essays examining the field of American cultural landscapes past and present The role of J B Jackson and his influence on the field is explored in many of them

New Cultural Landscapes Maggie Roe, Ken Taylor, 2014-01-21 While historical and protected landscapes have been well studied for years the cultural significance of ordinary landscapes is now increasingly recognised This groundbreaking book discusses how contemporary cultural landscapes can be and are created and recognised The book challenges common concepts of cultural landscapes as protected or special landscapes that include significant buildings or features Using case studies from around the world it questions the usual measures of judgement related to cultural landscapes and instead focuses on landscapes that are created planned or simply evolve as a result of changing human cultures management policy and practice Each contribution analyses the geographical and human background of the landscape and policies and management strategies that impact upon it and defines the meanings of cultural landscape in its particular context Taken together they establish a new paradigm in the study of landscapes in all forms
