 highways of Texas in the century 1761 1860 This was the century of exploration and settlement for the big new land and many thousands of people traveled its trails traders revolutionaries missionaries warriors government agents adventurers refugees gold seekers prospective settlers land speculators army wives and filibusters Their reasons for coming were many and varied and the travelers viewed the land and its people with a wide variety of reactions Political and industrial revolution famine and depression drove settlers from many of the countries of Europe and many of the states of the United States Some were displeased with what they found in Texas but for many it was a haven a land of renewed hope So large was the migration of people to Texas that the land that was virtually unoccupied in 1761 numbered its population at 600 000 a century later Several hundred of these travelers left published accounts of their impressions and adventures Collectively the accounts tell a panoramic story of the land as its boundaries were drawn and its institutions formed Spain gave way to
