be the very cup from which Christ drank at the Last Supper has the richest associations of any icon in British myth. Many different meanings have been devised for the Grail which has been linked to the Celts and King Arthur, the eucharistic rites of Eastern Christianity, ancient mystery religions, Jungian archetypes, dualist heresies, Templar treasure, and even the alleged descendants of Christ himself and Mary Magdalene. The common thread running through all these stories is the assumption that the Grail legend has a single source with a meaning that if only we could decode it is concealed in the romances themselves. That meaning has become the subject of coded secret documents and is the central feature of a vast conspiracy supposedly stretching back to the dawn of western civilization. Juliette Wood here reveals the elusive and embedded significance of the Grail story in popular consciousness as myth, medieval romance, tangible holy relic, and finally as the centre of an esoteric theory of global conspiracy. The author shows how various interpretations of the Grail over the centuries reflect changing cultural needs and desires. Her book will enthral those who like Sir Perceval seek to unlock the mysterious secrets of western mythology's most extraordinary and tantalising enigma and will delight students of history, myth, and religion alike.

When you perform a ritual it is an appeal to the spiritual powers of the universe, an appeal to the powers that are meant to connect with the earth precisely through what people do. Rudolf Steiner. With rituals or cultic forms as his central motif, Rudolf Steiner refers extensively to Indian, Persian, and in particular Egyptian initiation rites and how these enabled people of antiquity to connect with specific spiritual beings. He explains the practical purpose of mummification for the religious life of ancient Egypt and of the use of ritual in certain secret societies or brotherhoods today, as in turn a mummification of Egyptian rites. But he also points to the future, describing how truly formulated rituals have a positive effect on human development. Whilst inhalation exercises were relevant to cultures of the past, the principle of exhalation is important for future evolution. On the one hand, these extraordinary lectures relate to Rudolf Steiner's ceremonial work in the Esoteric School of 1906-1914, but more significantly, they were given in parallel to the founding of the Christian Community for which Rudolf Steiner mediated its sacraments. Today he states Christ must be sought through a new access to the spiritual world, and any remaining traditional ritualistic forms should be permeated with the power of the Mystery of Golgotha. The lectures are accompanied with an introduction by
