Literary studies still lack an extensive comparative analysis of different kinds of literature including ancient and non Western How Literary Worlds Are Shaped A Comparative Poetics of Literary Imagination aims to provide such a study Literature it claims is based on individual and shared human imagination which creates literary worlds that blend the real and the fantastic mimesis and genre often modulated by different kinds of unreliability The main building blocks of literary worlds are their oral visual and written modes and three themes challenge perception and relation They are blended and inflected in different ways by combinations of narratives and figures indirection thwarted aspirations meta usages hypothetical action as well as hierarchies and blends of genres and text types Moreover literary worlds are not only constructed by humans but also shape their lives and reinforce their sense of wonder Finally ten reasons are given in order to show how this comparative view can be of use in literary studies In sum How Literary Worlds Are Shaped is the first study to present a wide ranging and detailed comparative account of the makings of literary worlds Zen Traces Kenneth Kraft,2018-06-05

As Zen takes root in the West new forms arise For centuries Zen masters have tested their students with koans and capping phrases A koan is a spiritual paradox that must be solved intuitively A capping phrase is a trenchant comment Both are meditative practices that reveal deeper truths about the self and ideally lead to enlightenment In Zen Traces Buddhist scholar Kenneth Kraft plays off these practices in a new idiom He selects passages from four sources traditional Zen present day Zen Henry David Thoreau and Mark Twain When a koan like story about a contemporary Zen teacher is paired with a pithy comment by Mark Twain something fresh emerges In this lovely book Ken Kraft provides a unique opening for American Buddhism and American wisdom in general The reader will come to fresh and spacious new insights and enjoyments Cheers for Zen in America and a deep bow to Ken Kraft POLLY YOUNG EISENDRATH Ph D author of The Present Heart A Memoir of Love Loss and Discovery I highly recommend this delightful book of East West wisdom full of surprise insight wit and piercing beauty KATY BUTLER author of Knocking on Heaven's Door The Path to a Better Way of Death Traditional Japanese Architecture Mira Locher,2012-04-17

poems in incomparable translations by brilliant British sinologist 16 Songs of Courtship Hymn to the Fallen Ballad of Mulan more including many works by the poet Po Chu I Take Back the Sun Jeff Robbins,2014-08-06 Two hundred poems prose and letters about women by the 17th Century Japanese poet Basho form a vast pool of resources for the recognition of women s power and integrity Commentaries exploring the hidden meanings Entertaining and fun not literary and boring A legacy for women everywhere to explore An Ideal Husband Oscar Wilde,2001-02-01 Although Oscar Wilde 1854 1900 created a wide range of poetry essays and fairy tales and one novel in his brief tragic life he is perhaps best known as a dramatist His witty clever drama populated by brilliant talkers skilled in the art of riposte and paradox are still staples of the theatrical repertoire An Ideal Husband revolves around a blackmail scheme that forces a married couple to reexamine their moral standards providing along the way a wry commentary on the rarity of politicians who can claim to be ethically pure A supporting cast of young lovers society matrons an overbearing father and a formidable femme fatale continually exchange sparkling repartee keeping the play moving at a lively pace like most of Wilde s plays this scintillating drawing room comedy is wise well constructed and deeply satisfying An instant success at its 1895 debut the play continues to delight audiences over one hundred years later An Ideal Husband is a must read for Wilde fans students of English literature and anyone delighted by wit urbanity and timeless sophistication Reduction Fired Jennifer Yeates Camara,2021-05-25 Reduction refers to the pottery method of firing a piece in low oxygen conditions typically by slowly reducing the oxygen that feeds the kiln s fire Some colours of glazes result from reduction that aren t achieved in oxidation It may also be that the fuel starved fire pulls oxygen from the clay itself and in doing so draws elements from deep in the clay up to the glaze This can make it harder to determine the precise outcome of the glazed piece Reduction can even change the texture of the clay Jennifer Yeates Camara is a contemporary Canadian poet with a distinctly condensed style what you might call a reduction of verse In this first collection spanning over 25 years she was inspired by some of the standouts of classical world poetry including traditional Japanese haiku Tang Chinese poets Li Po Li Bai and Du Fu Tu Fu Bengali poet Rabindranath Tagore and even Biblical Hebrew poetry as well as English and Canadian literature While Jennifer enjoys different forms of poetry including the occasional sonnet the style mostly seen in Reduction Fired is architectural As Frank Lloyd Wright said Think simple as my old master used to say meaning reduce the whole of its parts into the simplest terms getting back to first principles Here lines are built only long enough to hold what is needed Intimate feelings and rich visuals are described in everyday language that is clear and calm The minimal verse at times is broken where the lines stand alone or the words at those points become different phrases with those before or after Many poems use parallels or rhymes of thought to keep ideas finely connected Yet routinely they take the reader to unexpected endings Most are short shots they may be quickly swallowed but keenly felt And there is ever a rhythm throughout Jennifer s writings The events described in these poems are common to many as they typically involve relationships of one kind or another like in the popular Chalk Drawings However on occasion Jennifer s poor beginnings her dear friend's suicide her spouse's disassociation from the family through addiction and her eventual mental breakdown do reveal themselves in certain poems or phrases Reduction Fired is set out in 4 sections each named for a season that represents a period in time Specifically they are grouped loosely in the reverse order they were written with those under Winter being more recent poems from Jennifer's early 40s penned when she was ill and those under Spring being a few of her poems from her early 20s Also each poem's illustrations and symbolism are often taken from nature There are further subgroups of poems for different subjects for example Chalk Drawings processes the emotions Jennifer felt when a man who appeared romantically interested in her revealed he had someone else in mind all along On a similar note W A M W refers to her feelings for an older man who was beyond reach Structurally Jennifer attempts to break lines where they may suggest more than one meaning or lead the reader down one path only to make an abrupt turn at the end Admittedly striving for this enjambment may muddle the meaning for some readers yet the author hopes that those readers who wish might enjoy contemplating the multiple possibilities and the chosen outcome Jennifer presently works as a paralegal and lives with her son Mohamed in Vancouver Canada For more information on Jennifer her influences and her photos please visit yeatescamara.com
