AN Whitehead

The Cold War Comes Home Guided Reading:

A Cold War Tourist and His Camera Martha Langford, John Langford, 2011-01-27 Martha Langford and John Langford examine their father's apparently innocuous photographic experience revealing the complexity of both the images and their creator. An intelligent and personal look at the ways that the historical and the private are represented and remembered. A Cold War Tourist and His Camera stages the family slide show as you've never seen it before. The Vietnam War from the Rear Echelon Timothy J. Lomperis, 2023-04-21 Timothy Lomperis knows the Vietnam War both as a soldier and as a scholar. In the latter role, he has published extensively, including The War Everyone Lost and Won, hailed as one of the best books ever written on that conflict. Even though he served two tours in-country during the war's most frustrating period, from the infamous Easter Invasion through the Paris Peace negotiations, this is the first time he has written about the war from such a personal perspective. An intelligence officer at the Military Assistance Command Vietnam (MACV), Lomperis and his comrades were tasked with translating Washington war policy into action. Lomperis provides a rare view of the war from the perspective of a rear echelon officer. He and other so-called REMFs were deeply involved in trying to devise and implement strategies that would win the war. This largely neglected perspective takes center stage in Lomperis's memoir, presenting a seldom-seen midlevel perspective that provides the missing links between the Washington-Hanoi peace negotiations and the deadly battles between troops in the field. In exposing the inner workings of a military headquarters during wartime, Lomperis recounts the tensions of a command caught between the political imperatives of Washington and the deteriorating military situation on the ground. Involved in the planning and execution of Nixon's 1972 Christmas Bombing Campaign, designed to push the North Vietnamese into peace negotiations, Lomperis sheds new light on Nixon's secret plan to end the war while offering rare glimpses of military operations and decision making on the ground in Saigon. Giving color to the REMF story, he also offers a portrait of life in wartime Saigon, writing with genuine respect for and curiosity about Vietnamese culture. And ultimately, he describes his own moral conundrum as the son of missionaries and an initial Cold Warrior who undergoes a gradual disillusionment that resolves into peaceful reconciliation. This incisive memoir is essential for better comprehending what the Vietnam experience was like for the large contingent of Americans who served there. It suggests the need for some fundamental rethinking about Vietnam, not only for the war's veterans but also for those concerned with the lessons it carries for U.S. involvement in current insurgencies. The World the Cold War Made James E. Cronin, 2021-11-18 An examination of the Cold War from the creation and structure of the postwar settlement to the eventual coming apart of the postwar order in the 1980s and early 1990s. James Cronin explores the creation and structure of the postwar settlement and the eventual coming apart of the postwar order in the 1980s and early 1990s. Cronin argues that the current state of the world must be understood against the backdrop of the postwar order that until recently governed, prevented, or distorted political and economic change. Propaganda and Mass Persuasion Nicholas J. Cull, David

H. Culbert, David Welch, 2003-07-15 A truly international authoritative A Z guide to five centuries of propaganda in both wartime and peacetime which covers key moments techniques concepts and some of the most influential propagandists in history This fascinating survey provides a comprehensive introduction to propaganda its changing nature its practitioners and its impact on the past five centuries of world history Written by leading experts it covers the masters of the art from Joseph Goebbels to Mohandas Gandhi and examines enormously influential works of persuasion such as Uncle Tom s Cabin techniques such as films and posters and key concepts like black propaganda and brainwashing Case studies reveal the role of mass persuasion during the Reformation and wars throughout history Regional studies cover propaganda superpowers such as Russia China and the United States as well as little known propaganda campaigns in Southeast Asia Ireland and Scandinavia The book traces the evolution of propaganda from the era of printed handbills to computer fakery and profiles such brilliant practitioners of the art as Third Reich film director Leni Riefenstahl and 19th century cartoonist Thomas Nast whose works helped to bring the notorious Boss Tweed to justice The Agricultural Education Magazine ,1943 The Friend ,1905 Agricultural Education Magazine ,1946 The War Cry ,1896 Navigating the Post-Cold War World

Jason A. Edwards, 2008-12-16 Jason A Edwards explores the various rhetorical choices and strategies employed by former President Bill Clinton to discuss foreign policy issues in a new post Cold War era Edwards argues that each American president has situated himself within the same foreign policy paradigm drawing upon the same set of ideas and utilizing the same basic vernacular to discuss foreign policy He describes how former presidents and President Clinton in particular made modifications to this paradigm leaving a rhetorical signature that tells us as much about the nature of their presidency as it does about the international environment they faced With the end of the Cold War came the end of a relatively stable international order This end sparked intense debates about the new direction of American foreign policy As Bill Clinton took office he developed a new lexicon of words in order to discuss America s changing role in the world and other major international issues of the time without being able to fall into Cold War era rhetoric By examining the nuances and unique contributions President Clinton made to American foreign policy rhetoric Edwards shows how his distinct rhetorical signature will influence future administrations Arthur's Illustrated Home Magazine ,1867 Tales of a Cold War Submariner Dan Summitt, 2004-08-24 Following the Second World War Dan Summitt cruised the China Sea in a destroyer During the Cold War he worked with Adm Hyman Rickover and commanded two nuclear submarines In Tales of a Cold War Submariner Summitt tells the dramatic story of his military life on and under the sea focusing on his experiences with nuclear submarines and Admiral Rickover the father of the nuclear navy His stories anecdotes and detailed descriptions bring this tense era to life for the reader Summitt recounts his service as commander of the USS Seadragon on its secret mission to the North Pole where he rendezvoused with the USS Skate to conduct experiments under the ice Following a posting to Naval Reactors Summit then took command of the USS Alexander Hamilton one of forty one Polaris submarines in
