Encyclopedia of American Film Serials Geoff Mayer, 2017-02-07 From their heyday in the 1910s to their lingering demise in the 1950s American film serials delivered excitement in weekly installments for millions of moviegoers despite minuscule budgets nearly impossible shooting schedules and the disdain of critics Early heroines like Pearl White Helen Holmes and Ruth Roland broke gender barriers and ruled the screen Through both world wars such serials as Spy Smasher and Batman were vehicles for propaganda Smash hits like Flash Gordon and The Lone Ranger demonstrated the enduring mass appeal of the genre Providing insight into early 20th century American culture this book analyzes four decades of productions from Pathe Universal Mascot and Columbia and all 66 Republic serials

The Intellectual American Eric B. Olsen, 2018-03-15 In his first collection of essays author and educator Eric B Olsen offers the reader a wide range of analytical thought and cultural criticism The book opens by examining the history of film in the twentieth century and then analyzing literature from ancient Greek drama to modern American poetry as well as commenting on jazz and popular music The final group of essays concerns topics as diverse as climate change popular culture religion anti intellectualism and politics Drawing on a broad base of literary and social criticism from the philosophical thought of Plato and Aristotle to the writings of Lionel Trilling and Richard Hofstadter The Intellectual American is a work of confident scholarship and the herald of a new voice in American letters

What On Earth Have I Done? Robert Fulghum, 2007-09-18 Robert Fulghum's new book begins with a question we've all asked ourselves What on Earth have I done As Fulghum finds out the answer is never easy and almost always surprising For the last couple of years Fulghum has been traveling the world from Seattle to the Moab Desert to Crete looking for a few fellow travelers interested in thinking along with him as he delights in the unexpected trick or treating with your grandchildren dressed like a large rabbit's trip to a department store to buy socks the raucous all night long feast that is Easter in Greece t nbspshare the same language What on Earth Have I Done is an armchair tour of everyday life as seen by Robert Fulghum one of America's great essayists a man who has two feet planted firmly on the earth one eye on the heavens and at times a tongue planted firmly in his cheek Fulghum writes to his fellow travelers with a sometimes light heart about the deep and vexing mysteries of being alive and says This is my way of bringing the small boat of my life within speaking distance of yours Hello

Agrifood System Transitions in Brazil Paulo André Niederle, Valdemar João Wesz Junior, 2020-10-29 This book explores the agrifood system transitions in Brazil to provide a new understanding of the trajectory of agriculture and rural development in this country It accentuates the increasing diversification and hybridization of food production and consumption practices throughout history With a framework that combines convention theory neoinstitutional approaches and practice theory this book suggests the concept of food orders which represents different arrangements of practices institutions and sociotechnical artifacts By exploring the interrelations between these elements the book looks at six different food orders industrial commercial domestic aesthetic civic and fi nancial in tandem with examples of practices sectors and territories to understand the dynamics of each one This aids in understanding the main tendencies of the agrifood sector in such a vast country that being a major player in global food markets also affect production and consumption dynamics in several other countries Besides this book also seeks to comprehend the current institutional changes in Brazil that may be critical to interpret the global dissemination of populist and autocratic governments Offering key insights into the contemporary sociology of agriculture and food this book demonstrates how strengthening democracy and supporting the organization of civil society are major challenges when we think about transition for sustainable food systems American Magazine ,1924 Catalogue of the Library of the Society of Writers to the Signet.
