The Bibliotheca Corvina. The Fate, Mission and Destiny of a Library István Monok, 2023 In 2022 the question what is the need for a library is becoming increasingly frequent Many of those who believe that humanity is developing are particularly confused by the kilometers of books that have been accumulated Not knowing that the digital library is also a library and not knowing that we still have a long way to go before the written heritage of humanity becomes part of the numerical world Even then humanity will not develop but suffice it to say that technology does If we look at the library of the Hungarian King Matthias Hunyadi 1443 1490 the Bibliotheca Corvina we can follow its history along similar lines Why and how the collection was created which in the opinion of the political leaders of the Hungarian Kingdom not necessarily more cultured than nowadays was meant to be pro decore Regni i e for the pride of the country The arrival of Beatrix of Aragon 1457 1508 and her entourage to Buda 1476 accelerated the book collection process In Europe between 1470 and 1520 Western Christianity existed in a shared world of values Within the Christian Church as a monk named Martin Luther 1473 1546 did the texts of the early church fathers and of the saints of personal religiosity were published analysed and interpreted while secular humanists did the same with the ancient corpus of texts and the textual memories that have been preserved from the early church fathers Furthermore they collected sources with people like Cosimo de Medici il Vecchio 1389 1464 who had the Bibliotheca Graeca and Bibliotheca Latina chambers set up in the convent of San Marco in Florence and with people like Matthias Corvinus who did the same in Buda

The Manuscript Tradition of Propertius James L. Butrica, 1984-12-15 The elegist Sextus Propertius ca 50 ca 16 BC is generally reckoned among the most difficult of Latin authors At the root of this difficulty lies a deeply corrupt text and uncertainty over the manuscript transmission moreover the manuscripts used in the standard editions of today have been selected without a comprehensive examination of the surviving copies This study the fullest survey of the manuscripts so far considers the affiliation of more than 140 complete or partial witnesses and offers a thorough reassessment of the tradition The principal novelty is the argument that six Renaissance copies represent an independent third witness to the archetype revealing passages where corruptions glosses or medieval corrections are now accepted as the words of Propertius and suggesting that the archetype was far more corrupt than now commonly supposed The study is in two parts In Part One after a survey of Propertius fortuna in the Middle Ages the author considers the affiliation and history of the known manuscripts and editions to 1502 then offers a text and revised apparatus of four elegies in Part Two he presents detailed descriptions of 143 manuscripts most of them from personal inspection
