

The background of the entire cover is a photograph of a house at night. The house has light-colored horizontal siding. A central window is framed by dark shutters. The window is divided into six small panes in the upper half and a single large pane in the lower half. The interior lights are on, and the view through the window shows a warm, orange-toned room with a lamp and some foliage. Outside the window, the house is decorated with strings of warm white Christmas lights. The foreground is dark, showing the silhouettes of bushes and trees.
