The Cloud of Unknowing is an anonymous work of Christian mysticism written in the latter half of the 14th century. The text is a spiritual guide on contemplative prayer. The book counsels students to seek God through intense contemplation motivated by love and stripped of all thought. This is brought about by putting all thoughts and desires under a cloud of forgetting and thereby piercing God's cloud of unknowing with a dart of longing love from the heart. This form of contemplation not directed by intellect involves a spiritual union with God through the heart.

The Cloud of Unknowing Anonymous, 1922. Written anonymously. The Cloud of Unknowing is a treatise which discusses the human soul and how God interacts with it to form each person's spiritual journey. A manual of prayer and God split into seventy-five short chapters; this book is intended to be read slowly so that the author's comprehension is maximized. First written in Middle English during the 15th century, the words are archaic but made comprehensible by author Evelyn Underhill, who performed edits upon the original text in the early 20th century. Unusually for the period, this treatise is imbued with plentiful good humor and a gentle tone. The author does not seek to preach oppressively or with threats of damnation but instead offers readers a relaxed, thoughtful yet devoted manual of faith and advice on living a joyous, spiritually mindful life. Although the book is old, the wisdom and guidance it offers is imbued with timelessness. Evelyn Underhill, an author who wrote extensively on the subjects of mysticism and spiritual experiences, was fascinated by this surviving work of the late Middle Ages. It was apparently written as private advice between a pupil and master and was not intended for wide publication. Underhill explains her affinity to this text in her introduction, identifying it as a prime example of Christian mysticism and noting past examples wherein mystics and spiritualists have influenced Christianity.

The Mysticism of The Cloud of Unknowing William Johnston, 2000. The Cloud of Unknowing was the work of an unknown 14th-century English writer with a powerful message of God's unconditional love in the face of despair. Johnston's theological treatment of this and other works by the same writer makes a conscious comparison with Oriental ways of contemplation.
