This volume covers twenty-five years of Irish writing, beginning in late 1997 with the establishment of the innovative literary periodical The Stinging Fly and concluding in 2022. The book is structured in five parts, with each part focusing on a particular mode of publication: periodicals, single author volumes, short story cycles, edited anthologies, and small or independent presses. Each part includes a series of case studies while also engaging with a diverse range of short story criticism and theory, both comparative and Irish-centered. Anthologisation and Irish Short Fiction brings different writers at distinct stages of their careers into conversation, and this volume aims to illuminate the contemporaneous value of this body of work its innovative and varied use and the diversity of its practice Particular attention is also shown to the fluidity of the short form to its capacity to disrupt and arrest and to its progressive writerly potential Danish Folktales, Legends, and Other Stories Timothy R.
