The Devouring Lion:

The Devouring Lion Michael T. Stewart, 2014-10-18 This is the story about two distinctly different lions and these two lions are nothing like you would meet in the jungle Even though they display many characteristics that we find in the natural lion it ends there these are spiritual lions Each of these lions has a totally different agenda than the other Both are very captivating in the way they present themselves but one leads you on the path to destruction while the other leads you to eternal life and happiness You will meet each of these lions and it will be your choice as to which lion you will want to follow down the path of life Carefully choose which one you will follow as one leads to eternal death and the other leads to eternal life In our journey through life each one of us will encounter two lions They each represent a kingdom a government the kingdom of darkness and the kingdom of light One of these lions tries to mimic the real true Lion and this one wants to kill and devour you The other true lion will devour the imitator lion that wants to devour you This one true real lion wants to give you eternal life You are about to see our enemy Satan the imitation lion as a devouring lion and you are about to see the true real LION who is the one and only Eternal LION who devours the imitation lion Satan and that Lion is none other than The Lion of Judah Jesus Christ Himself The popular Biblical educator [by J. Hedrick, 2010-08-11 This translation of the Gospel of Thomas represents a departure from the usual literal English of previous publications It aims at providing a reader friendly translation of the original Coptic language in contemporary idiomatic English while remaining true to the complexities of the Coptic The commentary seeks to clarify each saying as it likely would have been understood in the historical context of the Coptic language during the period of Thomas's popularity in Egypt The sayings in Thomas in this period are no longer sayings of the Jewish man Jesus of Nazareth but they have become sayings of a revelation bearer the living Jesus who announces a radical faith for a new age of the church The historical matrix that best serves to inform the text is found in a continuation albeit in a radical direction of the traditional faiths represented in the earliest Christian literature Cruising Paradise Sam Shepard, 2010-09-30 His first major book of
