some of the most electric emotive soul music America has ever heard Please Allow Me to Introduce Myself: Essays on Debut Albums George Plasketes, 2016-04-22 Debut albums are among the cultural artefacts that capture the popular imagination especially well As a first impression the debut album may take on a mythical status whether the artist or group achieves enduring success or in rare cases when an initial record turns out to be an apogee for an artist Whatever the subsequent career trajectory the debut album is a meaningful text that can be scrutinized for its revelatory signs and the expectations that follow Please Allow Me to Introduce Myself Essays on Debut Albums tells the stories of 23 debut albums over a nearly fifty year span ranging from Buddy Holly and the Crickets in 1957 to The Go Team in 2004 In addition to biographical background and a wealth of historical information about the genesis of the album each essay looks back at the album and places it within multiple contexts particularly the artist s career development In this way the book will be of as much interest to sociologists and historians as to culture critics and musicologists The Soundtrack Album Paul N. and 1960s Memphis Tennessee was the launch pad of musical pioneers such as Aretha Franklin Elvis Presley Johnny Cash Al Green and Isaac Hayes and by 1968 was a city synonymous with soul music It was a deeply segregated city ill at ease with the modern world and yet to adjust to the era of civil rights and racial integration Stax Records offered an escape from the turmoil of the real world for many soul and blues musicians with much of the music created there becoming the soundtrack to the civil rights movements The book opens with the death of the city s most famous recording artist Otis Redding who died in a plane crash in the final days of 1967 and then follows the fortunes of Redding s label Stax Volt Records as its fortunes fall and rise again But as the tense year unfolds the city dominates world headlines for the worst of reasons the assassination of civil rights leader Martin Luther King
