Military Psychology for Africa Gideon AJ van Dyk, 2016-03-17 Military Psychology for Africa is the first textbook of its kind from Africa. Selected authors with competent military psychology knowledge, skills, expertise and experience each contributed a chapter to this unique book. The book empowers academics, students and military fellows to apply this knowledge at academic institutions and military units during operations and in presenting short courses. The book will also equip soldiers with new knowledge for advancing peace on the continent and abroad.

The Imperial Aircraft Flotilla Margaret Hall, 2017-10-30 A great wave of fundraising patriotic associations followed in the wake of Great Britain's declaration of war on Germany on 4 August 1914 at home but also right across the empire. The most successful public campaign of all was launched in London at the beginning of 1915. Known as the Imperial Aircraft Flotilla, the scheme aimed to attract contributions towards aircraft production costs from throughout the British Empire. Any country, locality or community that provided sufficient funds for an entire aeroplane could have it named after them. It was promised that when the machine crashed or was shot down, the name would be transferred to a new one of the same type. Margaret Hall examines the Imperial Aircraft Flotilla as a facet of imperial history. She analyzes the fundraising efforts in Canada and Newfoundland, the Zanzibar Protectorate, Fiji, Mauritius and the Caribbean, Hong Kong, the Malay states and Straits Settlements, West Africa, especially Gold Coast, Southern Rhodesia, Basutoland, Swaziland and the Union of South Africa, the Indian empire and Burma, British subjects in independent Abyssinia and Siam, in the Shanghai International Settlement and the British community of Argentina, Australia and New Zealand. This remarkable and detailed book discusses the propaganda and counter-subversion usages of the Imperial Aircraft Flotilla and what the support for the imperial war effort reveals about contemporary national and regional identities and aspirations.

Militarized Fight Against Illegal Small-Scale Goldmining in Ghana Jasper Abembia Ayelazuno,Maxwell Akansina

Aziabah,2025-05-22 This slim book addresses one of the most vexed questions about governance and politics in natural resources rich albeit poor countries across the world Why have most states in natural resources rich developing countries failed to regulate their artisanal and small scale mining ASM industries This failure is both intellectually and politically puzzling because these same states demonstrate capability in different functions and regulations of other sectors of the economy Ghana is a quintessential example of this puzzle Despite its legendary reputation as a relatively well governed peaceful and democratic country its ASGM sector is characterized predominantly by informality criminality and horrendous environmental and human development effects which include the ferocious denuding of the country s vegetation cover toxic pollution of water bodies and serious health and safety hazards inflicted on the rural populace in mining areas This book seeks to contribute a fresh state theoretical perspective state capture to unravel this puzzle It argues that the chaotic criminal and ruinous Ghanaian ASGM sector known in Ghanaian parlance as the galamsey menace is caused by state capture The Ghanaian state has been captured by the mining power elites something that allows them to undertake criminal and destructive mining with impunity These state captors are not doing artisanal and small scale mining ASM but rather capitalist mechanized mining CMM which ravages the environment on a large scale and with breakneck speed State capture in Ghana s ASGM sector is demonstrated clearly in the book through vivid description and rigorous analysis of the failed militarised fight against the galamsey menace between 2017 and 2022 This is the period the Head of State and Commander in Chief of the Ghana Armed Forces GAF vowed to fight and defeat the perpetrators of this crime at the risk of losing his presidency He then declared war on the perpetrators and commandeered the coercive apparatuses of state led by the GAF to fight it The book argues that the state failed spectacularly to win this war the evidence of which is the aggravation of the deleterious environmental and human effects of galamsey For example the rivers and water bodies of Ghana have witnessed unprecedented levels of poisoning with lethal chemicals The rural populace in mining communities is inflicted with serious maternal and neonatal health hazards such as hideous congenital and physical disorders of some babies born in these communities and sadly the deaths of these babies Why despite its overwhelming coercive capacity did the Ghanaian state fail to win a war against a weak enemy galamsey operators who are mostly unarmed civilians and operating in plain sight of state agencies Using the lens of state captured this book addressed this question offering fascinating and penetrating insights into the puzzle Being the first to do this the book contributes to advancing theory methods and political praxis in the study and governance of the ASM industry in Ghana As failed military crackdowns on illegal ASM are common across natural resources rich developing countries the contribution this book makes may be germane to these countries in say Latin America and Asia
