The Dutch Revolt Through Spanish Eyes Yolanda Rodríguez Pérez, 2008 Historical and literary works from the Spanish Golden Age offer a wealth of information about the Spanish view of the conflict in the Netherlands during the Dutch Revolt and the ensuing Eighty Years War 1568-1648. The war in the cold north was to become a fixed component in the lives of the Spaniards of the Golden Age for many years. This book reconstructs the images that the Spanish had of the Netherlands and its inhabitants. These images are inextricably intertwined with the picture that the Spanish constructed of themselves as participants in the conflict. This book follows the developments of these images from the construction of an image of the enemy that reached a climax between 1621 and 1648 and then gradually faded away. Which images and representations circulated the most and where did they come from? Which rhetoric was used to present them to the public and in which genres and contexts were they disseminated and preserved? On the basis of a varied collection of sources: war chronicles and plays as well as pamphlets, poems, historical works and prose writings, the author illustrates the appearance of the Netherlands through Spanish eyes during the course of the Eighty Years War.

The History of British Film (Volume 7)
Rachael Low, 2020-03-26 This set is one of the cornerstones of film scholarship and one of the most important works on twentieth-century British culture. Published between 1948 and 1985, the volumes document all aspects of film-making in Britain from its origins in 1896 to 1939. Rachael Low pioneered the interpretation of films in their context, arguing that to understand films it was necessary to establish their context. Her seven volumes are an object lesson in meticulous research, lucid analysis and accessible style and have become the benchmark in film history.

A Companion to Spanish Cinema
