Kalu, George Klay Kieh Jr., 2022-05-05 Civil Wars in Africa edited by Kelechi A Kalu and George Klay Kieh Jr examines civil conflicts throughout various African countries They argue that civil wars in Africa are by products of the contradictions and crises engendered by the post colonial state building and nation building projects in Africa With few exceptions the post colonial states in Africa have failed to build societies that invest in the material well being of their citizens protect their political civil and other rights promote accountability transparency the rule of law judicial independence and the holding of free and fair elections and promote ethnic pluralism tolerance mutual respect and peaceful co existence among others In addition the contributors show that the post colonial states in Africa have been ruled by corrupt and autocratic leaders who are obsessed with the maintenance of state power as the pathway to ensuring the private accumulation of wealth through sundry illegal means including bribery extortion and theft of public funds In sum this volume addresses how the failure of the post colonial African state to shepherd the process of building democratic societies based on the centrality of human security has led to the erosion of the legitimacy of the state and its custodians Thus once the contradictions and crises reached their crescendo these post colonial societies than implode into civil wars even at the micro level The Parliamentary Debates (official Report). The creation of the Force Intervention Brigade (FIB) as the sharp tactical edge of the United Nations Stabilisation Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (MONUSCO) tasked with the neutralising of armed groups was a watershed moment in the history of modern peace missions. What was more significant was that sub-Saharan national leaders were instrumental in the creation of the FIB. South Africa, Tanzania, and Malawi but lacked the resources to deploy such a force and consequently the brigade was deployed under the banner of the UN. With the legacy of an African Renaissance and its role in the conception of the FIB, South Africa remains a critical player in international peace and security in sub-Saharan Africa and therefore holds a key strategic role in achieving the FIB's objectives. This comes at a critical time where blue helmets are increasingly exposed to complex and challenging security contexts. The aim of this work is to provide a conceptual model for South African military future operations and UN offensive peacekeeping operations. In this undertaking, a layer of military and Clausewitzian theory is added to offensive peacekeeping operations. Furthermore, there are sections on operational constructs, capstone and operating concepts, doctrine, and structural elements, as well as a section on mine action. This book contributes towards an understanding of the nature of modern strategy through the lens of UN offensive peacekeeping operations and provides insights into operational challenges.
