South African Army Bursaries 2016:

Pacifism and Pentecostals in South Africa Marius Nel, 2018-06-27 Most of the early twentieth century Pentecostal denominations were peace churches that encouraged a stance of conscientious objection. However, since the Second World War, Pentecostals have largely abandoned their pacifist viewpoint as they have taken on a more literal Biblical hermeneutic from their interaction with Evangelical denominations. This book traces the history of nonviolence in Pentecostalism and suggests that a new hermeneutic of the Bible is needed by today's Pentecostals in order for them to rediscover their pacifist roots and effect positive social change. The book focuses on how Pentecostalism has manifested in South Africa during the twentieth century. Much of the available academic literature on hermeneutics and exegesis in the field of Pentecostal Studies is of an American or British European origin. This book redresses this imbalance by exploring how the Bible has been used amongst African Pentecostals to teach on the apparent paradox of a simultaneously wrathful and loving God. It then goes on to suggest that how the Bible is read directly affects how Pentecostals view their role as potential reformers of society. So it must be engaged seriously and thoughtfully. By bringing Pentecostalism's function in South African society to the fore, this book adds a fresh perspective on the issue of pacifism in world Christianity. As such, it will be of great use to scholars of Pentecostal Studies, Theology and Religion, and Violence, as well as those working in African Studies.

Reimagining Social Justice Scholarship Tamara Shefer, Carmine Rustin, Floretta Boonzaier, 2025-09-25 Showcasing creative decolonial feminist and critical social justice scholarship located in a South African context, this book works across modalities and disciplines and within art and activism to challenge hegemonic and oppressive forms of gender and sexuality. In the wake of decolonial activism in higher education and civil society since 2015 and the larger struggle for equality and justice, Shefer, Rustin, Boonzaier, and their contributors draw primarily from the work of local research and pedagogical projects directed at alternative imaginaries of gender and sexual justice with global import. Increasingly, scholars are engaging in collaborative, dialogical, and creative work that foregrounds performance, art, music, crafts, literature, as well as embodied affective and relational engagements in the making of knowledge. This book shares some of these diverse counter-hegemonic pedagogies and research approaches that bring an intersectional and decolonial feminist lens to contemporary efforts to decolonise higher education and larger civil society. Producing lines of thought and sharing praxis that destabilises, disrupts, and opens up new possibilities for justice scholarship, the book provides a space for going beyond critical reflexivity in research and practice related to gender and sexual inequalities. It seeks to make a scholarly intervention founded on rethinking its own grounds through collaborations with knowledges often deployed by those outside the authoritative expert domains of academia, aligning it with feminist and decolonial aims. This book is a valuable resource for students and scholars of gender, sexuality, and intersectionality, particularly those with a focus on the global South.

Everyday State and Democracy in Africa Wale Adebani, 2022-07-12 Bottom-up case studies drawn from the perspective of ordinary Africans' experiences with state bureaucracies structures and services reveal how citizens and states define each other This volume examines contemporary citizens everyday encounters with the state and democratic processes in Africa The contributions reveal the intricate and complex ways in which quotidian activities and experiences from getting an identification card genuine or fake to sourcing black market commodities to dealing with unreliable waste collection both re produce and re constitute the state and democracy This approach from below lends gravity to the mundane and recognizes the value of conceiving state governance not in terms of its stated promises and aspirations but rather in accordance with how people experience it Both new and established scholars based in Africa Europe and North America cover a wide range of examples from across the continent including bureaucratic machinery in South Sudan Nigeria and Kenya infrastructure and shortages in Chad and Nigeria disciplinarity subjectivity and violence in Rwanda South Africa and Nigeria the social life of democracy in the Congo Cameroon and Mozambique education welfare and health in Ethiopia the Democratic Republic of Congo and Burkina Faso
