Even if you do have an agent, don't sit back and wait for him to get you work. You have to hustle. In Where Do I Find Auditions, working NYC actor David Neal Levin passes on the knowledge of years of experience on how to find auditions in a clear, concise guide. Inside you will also find 9 interviews with agents and casting directors offering their insights on the audition process in addition on where to find them. Musical theatre is a tough and over-crowded industry. Yet despite the huge competition many performers find auditioning difficult with little knowledge of what the directors, creative teams and producers are looking for or how to win the part over with their unique talent. As a leading international casting director, Neil Rutherford has seen thousands of hopefuls audition over the years. Uniquely, he also understands what it is like to audition from his years as a professional actor in musical theatre. This book provides a unique perspective on the musical theatre audition process and how to improve the chances of landing a role. With wit, humour and insight, Neil Rutherford guides the reader through the crucial elements of musical theatre auditions, opening up the process of casting and auditioning to the thousands of hopefuls trying to secure work in this industry every year as well as anyone involved in musical theatre. With a foreword by Tony award-winning director Bartlett Sher, the book also contains contributions from some of the world's leading directors and musical directors including Sir Richard Eyre and Jerry Mitchell, adding further valuable insight from those at the centre of the musical theatre world.
