Whisper Something Sweet Deatri King Bey:

The Chicago of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2011 The importance of Chicago in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on Chicago centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The Chicago of Fiction A Resource Guide James A Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 1 200 works of fiction significantly set in Chicago and published between 1852 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i e class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included

Ebony Angel Deatri King Bey, 2007-02-01 Ebony Washington is about to finish graduate school and move her child out of the gang infested drug ridden west side Chicago neighborhood they live in She meets Richard Pacini on the elevated train and they hit it off instantly they have complementing goals and personalities they have the same outlook on life and they have a mutual attraction for each other Ebony refuses to allow her meddling friends or the father of her child Trae to keep her from pursuing a relationship with Richard or leading her life as she sees fit Richard is speeding along a career path most would envy but he isn't happy He longs to have a loving family When he meets Ebony on the train he believes his prayers have been answered Battling over his decisions with his mother is the norm for Richard Dealing with people as manipulative as Trae is a whole new story Richard knows Ebony is his angel and no one will keep them apart Trae would die before letting some white guy steal his woman But he knows Ebony won't even consider taking him back as long as he is selling drugs Now he has two missions break up Ebony and Richard and become the man Ebony wants
