The White Horse Kenneth Levinson, 2018-07-12 Beware the White Horse Those were the words of a dying man as he vowed to return from the grave and wreak vengeance on his own malevolent son Adam Larsen the Denver lawyer with a penchant for crime solving is attacked on the seventeenth hole of a golf course by a knife wielding lunatic who claims that his father's ghost has returned to kill him Later the man is killed when he darts into the path of an oncoming minivan Larsen finds himself being stalked by a man in gray the same one who had been haunting Larsen's attacker Perhaps the dead man's fears had been well founded Curious now Larsen begins investigating the accident and soon encounters Karst a mysterious spiritual guide who clearly knows more than he is telling and whose cryptic answers only raise more questions Meanwhile Larsen's advice has led his lover and favorite private investigator Jana Deacon to uncover a hidden cache of gold coins a domineering husband had been concealing from his wife in a nasty divorce case When the man begins to threaten his wife and Jana Larsen becomes understandably concerned He discovers the husband is amassing assault gear including an AK47 and a stockpile of ammunition It's time Larson realizes for him to act But how can he stop a madman who is hell bent on murder And how can he do it without dozens of innocent people getting caught in the cross fire Larsen must find a way to out maneuver an avowed killer before time runs out And along the way he must solve the mystery of the White Horse
