Telling Stories of Pain and Hope Mary Elizabeth Lange, Ruth Teer-Tomaselli, 2024-06-07 The histories of South Africa and Ireland have been tumultuous and traumatic Both countries have experienced political repression sectarian violence and oppression that still impact the spiritual well being of people today Their parallel histories are of colonialism displacement and division and a fight for land and sovereignty Both countries have embarked on a process of healing and reconciliation yet there is an ongoing struggle for reparation and or reversal of previous injustices Recognising that museums of the 21st century have the potential to contribute to catharsis and mutual understanding this book reflects on selected museums in South Africa and Ireland that commemorate the pain of the past and the hope for the future The primary focus of the book is the way in which museum guides curators and managers share their stories and the stories of their ancestors and the stories of other people s ancestors who were caught up in the conflict while interweaving the stories of the authors as well Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa

Armageddon Lives: Part II The Rise of Elysia Skylar Sumski, 2025-02-05 The universe hums with a celestial ballet that spans eons a symphony of creation and destruction In this vast fabric of life the conflict between light and dark is not only a metaphor but a real ongoing conflict that is felt in mortal hearts and fought across galaxies By examining the intricacies of good and evil as dynamic forces that are always changing and evolving rather than as absolutes this story dives deep into the core of that conflict The master strategist Agaliarept the architect of oblivion is not just a malevolent force his nihilism is a weapon as powerful as any demonic legion Elysia the light bearer represents not absolute morality but a profound awareness of selflessness and the delicate equilibrium that must be maintained

Gods, Spirits, and Worship in the Greco-Roman World and Early Christianity Craig A. Evans, Adam Z. Wright, 2022-02-24 Greco Roman religions and superstitions and early Christianity's engagement with them are explored in 12 unique studies The beliefs and fears with regard to demons or daimons their origins and threatening behavior are examined both in their pagan and Judaeo Christian contexts These new studies look at the Greco Roman heroic gods how they faced death and how James and John the sons of Thunder may well have been viewed in some circles as the equivalent of the sons of Zeus Castor and Pollux The contributors also explore Roman omens especially as they relate to Rome's legendary founder Romulus and what light they shed on the omens that accompany the birth and death of Jesus of Nazareth Particular focus is placed upon Paul binding spells women and hymns of exaltation along with atheism in late antiquity with special consideration of the charlatan Alexander Finally there is a re visitation of the confusion misinformation and legends surrounding the discovery of the Qumran caves including fear of jinn This book provides invaluable resources for precisely how early Christians interacted with different ideas and traditions around gods and spirits both benevolent and malevolent in the Greco Roman world
