Anything For a T-Shirt Ron Rubin, 2004-11-01 Fred Lebow was a dreamer the kind of dreamer who pursued his dream and made it a reality And the world is still reaping its rewards So begins this inspiring chronicle of a humbly born Holocaust survivor who parlayed natural marketing smarts and vision into a major position in recent American sports He started the New York City Marathon an event that transformed footracing from an elite austere sport into a wildly applauded attainable pursuit for all Forging a path across the city's five boroughs the marathon covers a daunting 26.2 mile course Ron Rubin's fascinating book tells how Lebow popularized the race With a stroke of marketing wizardry he turned it into the world's largest block party a gritty mixture of urban theater and kindly entrepreneurship This event has honored the spirit of the moment imbued competition with joy and celebrated play It put winning within the realm of every man and woman and became a race for all runners Lebow mainstreamed the notion of marathoning into popular culture some half million Americans now participate in the events Equally significant the book describes how Lebow scored his greatest personal victory by running in the marathon he created after being diagnosed with brain cancer
