The unexpectedly warm spring break of 2015 brought on one of the most exciting, rewarding, and adventurous trips that I could have been a part of. While conversing with my friend over a cold beer about my spring break plans of doing nothing but relaxing during that lazy week in March, when the weather would be surprisingly ideal, I was told shortly in advance of a trip that the adventure club at UWSP would be taking to Florida. Even then the adventure wouldn't be finished, the clubs last stop on the way back home would be at Mammoth Cave National Park in Kentucky.

I was shaking with anticipation waiting for the club meeting where I would find out if I could go or not. This trip was limited of course, but was by far the best deal for any student. Luckily my competition was a slim amount than what it could have been if the trip had been advertised throughout the entire university. I couldn't believe how anxious I was when the meeting eventually started, even my face was starting to feel hot. I didn't know a single student in the room, except for my friend who had invited me. While it seemed like everyone else was conversing, I kept quiet, after all I was too shy in front of people I don't know. I unquestionably felt like an outcast at this meeting, but in the end I only cared about taking this trip of a lifetime. I didn't need to make
