Genevieve Yue,2020-11-10 Girl Head shows how gender has had a surprising and persistent role in film production processes well before the image ever appears onscreen For decades feminist film criticism has focused on issues of representation images of women in film But what are the feminist implications of the material object underlying that image the filmstrip itself What does feminist analysis have to offer in understanding the film image before it enters the realm of representation Girl Head explores how gender and sexual difference have been deeply embedded within film materiality In rich archival and technical detail Yue examines three sites of technical film production the film laboratory editing practices and the film archive Within each site she locates a common motif the vanishing female body which is transformed into material to be used in the making of a film The book develops a theory of gender and film materiality through readings of narrative film early cinema experimental film and moving image art This original work of feminist media history shows how gender has had a persistent role in film production processes well before the image ever appears onscreen Western Electrician ,1900

Mary and Maria, Matilda Mary Wollstonecraft,Mary Shelley,1992-12-03 These three works of fiction two by Mary Wollstonecraft the radical author of A Vindication of the Rights of Woman and one by her daughter Mary Shelley creator of Frankenstein are powerfully emotive stories that combine passion with forceful feminist argument In Mary Wollstonecraft s Mary the heroine flees her young husband in order to nurse her dearest friend Ann and finds genuine love while Maria tells of a desperate young woman who seeks consolation in the arms of another man after the loss of her child And Mary Shelley s Matilda suppressed for over a century tells the story of a woman alienated from society by the incestuous passion of her father Humane compassionate and highly controversial these stories demonstrate the strongly original genius of their authors TD & T. ,2002 Rethinking Rationality Michael X. Delli Carpini,Leonie Huddy,Robert Y. Shapiro,1996 This is an explanation of why people make the decisions they make at the ballot box and how numerous factors interact in the decision process Issues around rationality are explored in terms of communication and psychological factors are also discussed
