

SHS CHEERLEADING SPONSORSHIP!

Support the athletes who support the athletes!

Your donation helps support these athletes as they represent their school and our beautiful community at games, at school. Your donations affect more than the immediate future of these athletes; it affects the choices of colleges, careers and future families in our community. Sit Down and Cheer Martin Kelner, 2012-09-27 Television and sport is the ultimate marriage of convenience The two circled each other warily for a while sport anxious the sofa bound might spurn the live product TV reluctant in a limited channel world to hand over too much screen time to flannelled fools and muddled oafs But they got together and stayed together for the sake of the money and now you cannot imagine one without the other They are indivisible like an old couple sitting in a teashop finishing each other's sentences and there is little doubt which is the dominant partner You have only to think of the recent sports stars who have left their muddy fields to don sequins grab partners and tango their way across the stage in ultimate Saturday night television style to see how far the two have come on their journey together In Sit Down and Cheer Martin Kelner traces the development of this relationship from its humble origins in the 1960 Olympics by way of the first ever Match of the Day in 1964 through to the financial impact of Sky right up to the high tech gadgetry of our present day viewing Insightful and very funny this is an entertaining exploration of two major national pastimes and not to be missed

The British Cheer Paul Thompson, 2025-11-04 This is a bold painstakingly researched and wide ranging assessment of the British Cheer in the Napoleonic era Reference to the Cheer in accounts of the time is virtually ubiquitous and repeatedly the claim was made for cheering as an integral part of British offensive operations However more recent historians have tended to overlook this evidence Based upon a vast range of contemporary sources this book suggests that the Cheer wielded genuine power as a true weapon of war This book first surveys the history of acclamations in battle worldwide and British battle cries from all periods before addressing the question of what the British Cheer actually sounded like Issues of acoustics physics and the psychology of battlefield morale are considered along with commentaries from significant military scholars throughout history Examination of the Napoleonic era Cheer then reveals the practically invincible recipe of volley cheer charge that propelled the British Army to victory upon victory Comparison is drawn with French and other national patterns of vocalizing along with analysis of those occasions when the Cheer might be suppressed Finally the attitude of the Duke of Wellington towards cheering is reconsidered with surprising results This study encompasses a vast canvas of place and time in pursuit of the elusive yet galvanizing Cheer from the Mahratta wars in India through campaigns in Egypt the Mediterranean Flanders the Caribbean and South America as well as the war of 1812 The Peninsular and Waterloo campaigns feature prominently as the Cheer is heard thrillingly from Vimeiro to Talavera Salamanca to Vitoria Orthez to Toulouse and the shocking siege of Badajoz to the charge of the Scots Greys on the ridge of Mont Saint Jean Anyone interested in the wars of Revolutionary France and Napoleon the British army the career of the Duke of Wellington or indeed the wider questions of the psychological motivations of combat will find this book illuminating and thought provoking

Peacebuilding for Adolescents Linda Rennie Forcey,Ian M. Harris,1999 Relying largely on the work of peace and conflict resolution scholars from many disciplines Peacebuilding for Adolescents presents proactive strategies for educators and community leaders In order to deter adolescent violence educators have been responding to increasing levels of school violence by severely punishing aggressive children and politicians have been clamoring for tougher criminal justice measures to deter youth from crime The authors in this book argue instead for a more humane response by teaching young people to value peace to learn to manage their own conflicts and to live more peacefully They take a broad view that ranges over three strategic levels of analysis personal school and community They argue for the promotion of a culture of nonviolence in the schools to help create what Dr Martin Luther King Jr called the beloved community

Four Tubas, a Guitar, and a Gallery of Cheerleaders Sederick C. Rice,2010-10-12 Four Tubas a Guitar and a Gallery of Cheerleaders is about my growth maturity and life journeys that interconnected me with people who encouraged motivated and criticized my steps with love compassion and care Readers will get a glimpse of my sojourn as a person and an inside look at the importance of good mentor relationships in the development of a young African American Black man with a desire to earn a Ph D My broader goal is to inspire others to look more closely at their own lives and take time to honor those who have made a difference This book is written as a way to say thanks and serves to connect my life through their impact The backdrop of my journey will be lessons learned and how my successes were encouraged while my limitations were addressed with constructive criticism kindness and unconditional love I chose Four Tubas a Guitar and a Gallery of Cheerleaders as part of the principal title to signify my musical background and its impact on my life One of the primary bonds for several of my mentors was that we all studied and played the same instrument the tuba which in my opinion is the greatest instrument in the world The second part of the principal title A Gallery of Cheerleaders symbolizes the encouragement I received over the years from my biggest fans and support network My cheerleaders consisted of people from all walks of life and experiences The subtitle Transition in the Life of a Black Ph D is self explanatory as is my usual writing style but describes my experiences as an African American man in pursuit of higher education and my share of the American Dream
