School Songs and Gym Slips Marilyn Yurdan, 2011-11-30 What was life really like in a grammar school in the 1950s and 60s For those educated at a grammar school during their heyday this time holds very special memories They were more than just the years of being taught Latin and domestic science custard and semolina school dinners and learning about the birds and the bees they were the formative years of a generation when those from all walks of life were given a uniform a code of behaviour and most importantly pride in the institution to which they belonged This generation of Baby Boomers holds a unique place in British history growing up during the years when the country was emerging from the shadow cast by the Second World War they were the first youngsters to benefit from the mod cons and innovations which were gradually being introduced With fascinating memories and details that will resonate with thousands of grammar school pupils across the country School Songs and Gymslips is a heart warming collection of the experiences of the author and her contemporaries during a golden era

Buildings of Empire Ashley Jackson, 2013-11-28 Buildings of Empire takes the reader on an exciting journey through thirteen territories of the British Empire From Dublin Castle to the glass and steel of Sir Norman Foster's Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank skyscraper these buildings capture the essence of the imperial experience painting an intimate portrait of the biggest empire the world has ever seen the people who made it and the people who resisted it as well as the legacy of the imperial project throughout the world Ashley Jackson visits classic examples of the buildings that the British governed from the forts they often brutally imposed their rule from the railway stations they travelled from the banks they traded from the educational establishments they spread their values from as well as the grand colonial hotels they stayed in the sporting clubs and botanical gardens where they took their leisure and the monumental exhibition spaces in which they celebrated the achievements of settlement and imperial endeavour The history of these buildings does not end with the empire that built them Their story in the aftermath of empire highlights the continuing legacy of many of the structures and institutions the British left behind as well as the sometimes unexpected role that these former symbols of alien rule have played in the establishment of new national identities in the years since independence The Columbia History of American Television

Gary Richard Edgerton, 2007 Richly researched and engaging The Columbia History of American Television tracks the growth of TV into a convergent technology a global industry a social catalyst a viable art form and a complex and dynamic reflection of the American mind and character Renowned media historian Gary R Edgerton follows the technological progress and increasing cultural relevance of television from its prehistory before 1947 to the Network Era 1948 1975 and the Cable Era 1976 1994 He considers the remodeling of television's look and purpose during World War II the gender racial and ethnic components of its early broadcasts and audiences its transformation of postwar America and its function in the political life of the country In conclusion Edgerton takes a discerning look at our current Digital Era and the new forms of instantaneous communication that continue to change America's social political and economic landscape Ripper Suspect D J

Leighton, 2016-09-23 One of the most popular of all Ripper suspects Montague Druitt appears on the surface an unlikely killer Born into a comfortable bourgeois family he was educated at New College Oxford qualified for the Bar and played cricket for a number of strong club sides But there was another side to the agreeable Mr Druitt He moved in the artistic and aristocratic circles that overlapped with London's secretive homosexual culture was summarily dismissed from his post at a boys school and a few weeks later was found drowned in the Thames just months after the Jack the Ripper murders Six years later Chief Constable Sir Melville Macnaughten named Druitt as the murderer and gave the unhappy barrister a kind of immortality D J Leighton has dug deep into the background to Druitt's unhappy life and uncovered a web of intriguing connections linking the eldest son of the heir to the throne the Cambridge Apostles Sir Arthur Conan Doyle Virginia Woolf and the cricketing legend Prince Kumar Ranjitsinhji The book is a fascinating period piece that deftly weaves together the criminal sporting aristocratic and homosexual worlds of late nineteenth century London in search of the truth behind Macnaughten's surprising allegations This book is an excellent piece of period crime history with a Jack the Ripper setting It is a colourful Victorian underworld story mixing high society with scandal the golden age of amateur cricket and murder It is the authoritative debunking of the case for Druitt as Jack the Ripper Inside Japanese Classrooms Nancy Sato, 2003-12-16

This detailed ethnographic study of fifth and sixth grade classrooms offers new insights into Japanese culture as many aspects of daily social life are embedded in the educational system Additionally this book provides new perspectives on educational reform in the U S since many current issues and programs focus on notions of community collaboration and systemic reform all of which are central to understanding Japanese teaching learning processes in schools The Producer, 1929 North Korea Quarterly, 1995 The 1904 Anthropology Days and Olympic Games Susan Brownell, 2008-12-01 One of the more problematic sport spectacles in American history took place at the 1904 World's Fair in St Louis which included the third modern Olympic Games Associated with the Games was a curious event known as Anthropology Days organized by William J McGee and James Sullivan at that time the leading figures in American anthropology and sports respectively McGee recruited Natives who were participating in the fair's ethnic displays to compete in sports events with the scientific goal of measuring the physical prowess of savages as compared with civilized men This interdisciplinary collection of essays assesses the ideas about race imperialism and Western civilization manifested in the 1904 World's Fair and Olympic Games and shows how they are still relevant A turning point in both the history of the Olympics and the development of modern anthropology these games expressed the conflict between the Old World emphasis on culture and New World emphasis on utilitarianism Marked by Franz Boas's paper at the Scientific Congress the events in St Louis witnessed the beginning of the shift in anthropological research from nineteenth century evolutionary racial models to the cultural relativist paradigm that is now a cornerstone of modern American anthropology Racist pseudoscience nonetheless reappears to this day in the realm of sports Promoting All-Round Education for Girls Patricia P. K. Chiu, 2020-06-02 Promoting All Round Education for Girls presents the history of Heep Yunn School one of the oldest girls schools in Hong Kong Amalgamated from two British mission schools founded in the 1880s for destitute girls and daughters of Christian parents and renamed Heep Yunn School in 1936 the institution has witnessed and responded to the dramatic changes of Hong Kong over the years By the time of the outbreak of the Second World War Heep Yunn had expanded to offer a full Chinese middle school course for girls based upon Christian principles of all round education The school expanded rapidly after the war and became a bilingual institution to meet the demand for English language education Eventually English would become the primary medium of instruction soon after the introduction of nine year universal education in 1978 Heep Yunn strives to provide a full fledged all round education in the midst of political and education reforms The school opted to switch its status from a government aided school to a direct subsidy scheme school in the early 2010s so as to retain a larger degree of autonomy This history of Heep Yunn School documents the concerted efforts of the school council staff students alumnae and parents to achieve the evolving visions of Christian education for girls as Hong Kong grew from a colonial trading port to a global financial centre in the twenty first century Promoting All Round Education for Girls convincingly charts the shifting purposes and practices of girls education in Hong Kong The text moves seamlessly between the history of the school and the wider context of Hong Kong's history Patricia P K Chiu illustrates how the school's educational policy evolved according to the wider strategies and shifts that relate models of femininity and nation building Joyce Goodman University of Winchester This solidly referenced work provides a balanced and detailed outlook on the unique evolving features of education in Hong Kong It shows the effects on Heep Yunn School of major historical changes in education policy and how the school has contributed to the education of girls in Hong Kong in periods of dramatic challenge like the Sino Japanese War and the disturbances of the late 1960s Ruth Hayhoe University of Toronto Humans, Horses and Events Management Katherine Dashper, Guðrún Helgadóttir, Ingibjörg Sigurðardóttir, 2021-03-12 Horses are perhaps the most common non human animal to feature in planned events but although there is considerable research on equestrian sport there is virtually none on equestrian events This book begins to address this gap using the National Championships of the Icelandic Horse as an extended case study to explain in depth the process of managing an event as well as the larger theoretical implications of events management Drawing on diverse viewpoints and theoretical perspectives the book draws wider comparisons to connect events management to larger themes in the social sciences such as human animal relations nationalism place branding event impacts event experience and inclusion and exclusion The book is a contribution to two fields In relation to human animal studies it focuses on how the Icelandic horse breed is marketed and celebrated through top tier competition whereas from an events management perspective it considers the role of the event in community building the practical and theoretical aspects of running a sustainable equestrian event and the issues that arise in multispecies event contexts Sport and Nationalism in China Zhouxiang Lu, Fan Hong, 2013-10-30 This book examines the relationships between sport nationalism and nation building in China By exploring the last 150 years of Chinese history it offers unparalleled depth and breadth of coverage and provides a clear grasp of Chinese sports nationalism from both macro and micro perspectives Beginning with a discussion on the role of sport in the Qing Dynasty s Self Strengthening Movement 1861 1895 the book examines how sport contributed to the shaping of the early forms of Chinese nationalism in the late 19th century It identifies and defines the core functions of sport in the Chinese Nationalist Revolution which successfully transformed China from a culturally bound empire to a modern nation state in 1911 The following section on the Republic of China Era 1912 1949 explores the interactions between sport and the construction of Chinese nationalism and national consciousness illustrating how sport played its part in the building of the newly established nation state Moving on to the Communist China Era 1949 present the book scans the whole spectrum of both modern and contemporary Chinese nationalism and interprets the most important issues on the course of China s nation building explaining why sport is so tightly bound up with nationalism and patriotism and how sport became an essential part of nationalists politicians and educationalists strategy to revive the Chinese nation Petroleum Times ,1921 Religion and Sport in Japan Zachary T. Smith, Dennis J. Frost, Stephen G. Covell, 2024-09-30 The sports world s attention was focused on Japan for the Tokyo 2020 Summer Olympics and Paralympics The years long buildup to and aftermath of the games occurred in the midst of the global pandemic which delayed the event until 2021 Given all of this there is perhaps no better time to delve into an often overlooked but critical facet of sport in Japan religion Religion has long been a part of the Japanese sport tradition from

Shugend practitioners offering sumo bouts to the gods to soccer players of all ages praying for success at Shint shrines from the use of meditation and ritual in martial arts to gain focus or superhuman abilities to religious organizations sponsoring sporting events and teams and school sports clubs Religion and Sport in Japan brings together historians and sport and religious studies specialists from Japan the US and Europe to address sport s ties to corporate and national identity politics environmentalism ritual and sacred space Major themes discussed include the spiritual geographies of sport sport as invented tradition technologies of self material culture and civil religion The chapters are written so that sport historians with no background in the study of Japan or religious studies scholars who have never before examined the world of sport will find the material accessible To provide further grounding for non field specialists the volume begins with two background chapters that introduce sport studies in Japan and the study of religion and sport
