Film Studies Glyn Davis, Kay Dickinson, Lisa Patti, Amy Villarejo, 2015-02-20 Film Studies A Global Introduction reroutes film studies from its Euro American focus and canon in order to introduce students to a medium that has always been global but has become differently and insistently so in the digital age Glyn Davis Kay Dickinson Lisa Patti and Amy Villarejo s approach encourages readers to think about film holistically by looking beyond the textual analysis of key films In contrast it engages with other vital areas such as financing labour marketing distribution exhibition preservation and politics reflecting contemporary aspects of cinema production and consumption worldwide Key features of the book include clear definitions of the key terms at the foundation of film studies coverage of the work of key thinkers explained in their social and historical context a broad range of relevant case studies that reflect the book s approach to global cinema from Italian white telephone films to Mexican wrestling films innovative and flexible exercises to help readers enhance their understanding of the histories theories and examples introduced in each chapter an extensive Interlude introducing readers to formal analysis through the careful explication and application of key terms a detailed discussion of strategies for writing about cinema Films Studies A Global Introduction will appeal to students studying film today and aspiring to work in the industry as well as those eager to understand the world of images and screens in which we all live

Analyzing Literature-to-Film Adaptations Mary H. Snyder, 2011-01-20 The majority of scholarly treatments for film adaptation are put forth by experts on film and film analysis thus with the focus being on film Analyzing Literature to Film Adaptations looks at film adaptation from a fresh perspective that of writer or creator of literary fiction In her book Snyder explores both literature and film as separate entities detailing the analytical process of interpreting novels and short stories as well as films She then introduces a means to analyzing literature to film adaptations drawing from the concept of intertextual comparison Snyder writes not only from the perspective of a fiction writer but also as an instructor of writing literature and film adaptation She employs the use of specific film adaptations Frankenstein Children of Men Away from Her to show the analytical process put into practice Her approach to film adaptation is designed for students just beginning their academic journey but also for those students well on their way The book also is written for high school and college instructors who teach film adaptations in the classroom
