The Art and Practice of Economics Research Simon W. Bowmaker, 2012-01-01 In this book Simon Bowmaker offers a remarkable collection of conversations with leading economists about research in economics He has selected a broad sample of the great economists of our time including people whose perspectives span most of the major subdivisions of economics research from micro to macro from theoretical to empirical from rationalist to behavioral

_ From the foreword by Roger B Myerson University of Chicago US and 2007 Nobel Laureate in Economics

The Art and Practice of Economics Research is the book I wish I had when I was growing up as an economist For anyone who is or wants to be an economic researcher or anyone just interested in how economics works this is a terrific and inspirational resource

_ David K Levine Washington University in St Louis US It is hard to imagine an economist in the world who would not enjoy this book It is fascinating gripping and full of the wisdom imparted by age and by scholarly life's ups and downs

_ Andrew J Oswald University of Warwick UK Although each has followed his or her own road these scholars share a passion for economics and a commitment to the research enterprise The best economists lie sleepless gripped by their questions

_ Joshua Angrist Massachusetts Institute of Technology US This is a wonderful book of interviews with some of the most respected economists in the world It is full of insights into academic life and clearly conveys the joy of doing economics research

_ Jon Levin Stanford University US The relaxed frame of the interviews gives interested parties exciting insights into the thoughts and concerns of leading economists and might well inspire some of the best young minds to continue with economics in their later lives

_ Ernst Fehr University of Zurich

Switzerland The Art and Practice of Economics Research provides an in depth look into the research methods of leading economists from across the United States and Europe This innovative volume contains 25 interviews with practicing economists presenting insightful personal accounts into an often misunderstood field Contributors to this volume were asked to reflect on their own experience in economics research including their methods of working the process of scientific discovery and knowledge creation and the challenges of successfully disseminating their work The unique and compelling interview format showcases each contributor s personal connection to his or her work presenting a view of current economics research that is technical comprehensive and refreshingly human Both students and current scholars in economics will find much to admire in this book s window into the inner workings of some of the brightest and best known minds in the field This volume would also make a great companion to the author s 2010 book The Heart of Teaching Economics which showcases the personal experiences of teachers and professors of economics

A Word Fitly Spoken Dr. Charles L. Kent, 2011-11-02 As a new believer in Christ Jesus I overheard someone speaking about the perfect will of GOD I was so amazed that GOD had a perfect will for my life It was then I discovered my gift of teaching I begin a lifelong search for knowledge insight and wisdom I came across so much truth that I remembered asking GOD to help me to retain the every thought of GOD that was being shared with me from Him I was truly enlightened by His word and His spirit GOD gave me this gift of remembering events scripture lessons teaching tools and defining special moments through Acronyms hence the title A Word Fitly Spoken Its nothing short of a miracle I give Him all the Glory For years Ive ministered using one two and even more of my acronyms in my teachings These acronyms help put a handle on the truths discovered as we look into life and the word of GOD The way GOD deals with me is through meditation and I simply ask GOD What are you saying How could this be said in a way that will allow me to never forget it Give me a method to hang this truth on and as expected He does it each time So walk with me through my lifes lessons with these acronyms given to me by GOD revealing to us how to handle His precious principles that He desires us to never forget
