Novel Preaching Alyce M. McKenzie, 2010-02-01 In this lively and accessible book Alyce McKenzie explores how fiction writers approach the task of writing novels how they develop their ideas where they find their inspiration and how they turn the spark of a creative notion into words on paper that will captivate the masses McKenzie s study shows how preachers can use the same techniques to enhance their own creativity and to turn their ideas into powerful well crafted sermons Novel Preaching offers a wealth of advice from successful fiction writers including Isabelle Allende Frederick Buechner Julia Cameron Annie Dillard Natalie Goldberg Stephen King Toni Morrison Joyce Carol Oates and Melanie Rae Thorn and also includes a number of sample sermons from McKenzie herself

Monarch's Writing Peter C. Herman, 2002 In the first book to examine the verse produced by Tudor and Stuart monarchs eight Renaissance scholars demonstrate how monarchs used verse to reflect on their monarchic status and to assert royal policy As almost all of the poetry of these regal authors is inaccessible the volume includes a selection of their verse in modernized and newly edited texts offering an ideal study volume for specialists and the classroom The contributors examine the nexus of poetry and power from an unconventional New Historicist perspective from that of the person in power who writes poetry rather than that of the suitor of power Their approaches to the subject are interdisciplinary combining literary studies women s studies history the history of sexuality and manuscript studies      Mapping Region in Early American Writing Edward Watts, Keri Holt, John Funchion, 2015-11-15 Mapping Region in Early American Writing is a collection of essays that study how early American writers thought about the spaces around them The contributors reconsider the various roles regions imagined politically economically racially and figuratively played in the formation of American communities both real and imagined These texts vary widely some are canonical others archival some literary others scientific some polemical others simply documentary As a whole they recreate important mental mappings and cartographies and they reveal how diverse populations imagined themselves their communities and their nation as occupying the American landscape Focusing on place specific local writing published before 1860 Mapping Region in Early American Writing examines a period often overlooked in studies of regional literature in America More than simply offering a prehistory of regionalist writing these essays offer new ways of theorizing and studying regional spaces in the United States as it grew from a union of disparate colonies along the eastern seaboard into an industrialized nation on the verge of overseas empire building They also seek to amplify lost voices of diverse narratives from minority frontier and outsider groups alongside their more well known counterparts in a time when America s landscapes and communities were constantly evolving      Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature Vol 2 R. Reginald, Mary A. Burgess, Douglas Menville, 2010-09-01 Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature A Checklist 1700 1974 Volume Two of Two contains Contemporary Science Fiction Authors II      New Ideas in the Writing Arts Graeme Harper, 2013-08-19 New Ideas in the Writing Arts has come about because recent changes taking place in educational settings have influenced the ways in which learners and teachers are exploring Creative Writing The worldwide growth of Creative Writing as a formal subject of study in universities and colleges has generated explorations that appear now to be at the tip of an even greater range of explorations that promise to be undertaken in coming years When titling this book the intention was to say that we should consider what might currently be new what might be explored what might be introduced to a writer who has not thought of investigating certain aspects of Creative Writing or undertaking Creative Writing in a certain way Such freshness can often produce a development in a writer s own work Our 21st century development of research in Creative Writing undertaken by creative writers through writing practice and through a critical engagement with Creative Writing that begins in writing practice is already unearthing new ways of thinking about Creative

Writing and new ways of undertaking it too New Ideas in the Writing Arts presents explorations of Creative Writing fresh from explorers of Creative Writing who have incorporated into their work ideas discovered in creative practice and ideas explored critically because of creative practice Readers will discover in the tone and trajectory of the chapters a serious engagement with how to determine current knowledge how to confirm or challenge that knowledge and broadly how to progress our knowledge of Creative Writing Practical considerations prevail and there is a clear sense in which Creative Writing is an activity not a static thing to be examined in a fixed state and discussed as a completed object Rather Creative Writing in this book is a range of events and their results a human activity that draws on many individual actions cultural and historical contexts and in its undertaking presents evidence that reflects on the knowledge and belief that informs and produces it
