Writing Across The Curriculum 12th Edition:

Reconnecting Reading and Writing Alice S. Horning, Elizabeth W. Kraemer, 2013-09-06 Reconnecting Reading and Writing explores the ways in which reading can and should have a strong role in the teaching of writing in college. Reconnecting Reading and Writing draws on broad perspectives from history and international work to show how and why reading should be reunited with writing in college and high school classrooms. It presents an overview of relevant research on reading and how it can best be used to support and enhance writing instruction. Content Area Reading Richard T. Vacca, Jo Anne L. Vacca, Maryann E. Mraz, 2016-01-15 This is the eBook of the printed book and may not include any media website access codes or print supplements that may come packaged with the bound book. Widely popular as an undergraduate and graduate text and a valuable in-service resource, Content Area Reading shows pre- and in-service content area teachers how to use literacy-related instructional strategies to help students think and learn with all kinds of print and digital texts. As in previous editions, the emphasis is on the comprehensive content including an ever-expanding knowledge base in the areas of literacy, cognition, and learning; educational policy; new literacies and technologies; and student diversity. This edition updates readers with current theory, research, and practices related to content literacy and learning in disciplines. Throughout, it includes a renewed focus on writing across the content areas with emphasis on strategies for online writing and multimodal learning. New disciplinary literacy boxes throughout, new Voices from the Field boxes, and new instructional strategy examples replacing those in older editions. Updated content and references reflecting current developments in literacy education and content area reading. A new Key Learning Outcomes feature at the beginning of each chapter and a new Check Your Understanding feature at the end of each chapter. A major update of Chapter 2, Learning with New Literacies, includes strategies to engage and empower multimodal learning across the curriculum. High Impact Practices in Higher Education Enakshi Sengupta, 2023-09-27 Collating various case studies, policies, and other real-world research, this book examines effective high-impact learning practices and demonstrates approaches that promote learning communities and common intellectual experiences. Resources in Education, 2001-10 Directory of Awards National Science Foundation (U.S.). Directorate for Science and Engineering Education, Writing in the Disciplines Mary Deane, Peter O'Neill, 2011-08-23 Writing in the Disciplines WiD is a growing field in which discipline-based academics, writing developers, and learning technologists collaborate to help students succeed as subject specialists. This book places WiD in its theoretical and cultural contexts and reports on initiatives taking place at a range of UK higher education institutions. Also includes surveys of current developments and scholarship in the US, Australia, Europe, and elsewhere, making it of interest to both a UK and an international audience. Conference Proceedings, 1994 Style and the Future of Composition Studies Paul Butler, Brian Ray, Star Medzerian Vanguri, 2020-11-02 Style and the Future of Composition Studies explores style's potential for informing how students are taught to write well and its power as a tool for analyzing the language and discourse.

practices of writers and speakers in a range of contexts Many college writing teachers operate under the belief that style still refers primarily to the kinds of issues discussed in Strunk and White's popular but outdated book The Elements of Style This work not only challenges this view but also offers theories and pedagogies from diverse perspectives that help teachers and students develop strategic habits and mindsets to negotiate languages genres and discourse conventions The chapters explore the ways in which style directly affects and is affected by multiple sources of shifting disciplinary inquiry contributing new insights by drawing on research in cultural studies sociolinguistics discourse studies translingualism and writing across the curriculum as well as new approaches to classical rhetorical theory The reemergence of stylistic inquiry can be used dynamically to produce new insights not only about emerging disciplinary interests but also about the study of style as a kind of language in and of itself Style and the Future of Composition Studies demonstrates that style deserves to be a central focus of writing teaching More than just the next style collection the book advocates for style's larger prominence in composition discussions generally It will be of interest to a broad range of students and scholars of writing studies as well as a wider set of readers in academe Contributors Cydney Alexis Laura Aull Anthony Box Jimmy Butts Mike Duncan William FitzGerald Melissa Goldthwaite Eric House TR Johnson Almas Khan Zak Lancaster Eric Leake Andrea Olinger Thomas Pace Jarron Slater Jonathan Udelson
