

NYS REGENTS - SHORT ESSAY QUESTION OUTLINE & GUIDE

Short Answer Question #2

Short Answer Question #2 is based on the accompanying documents and is designed to test the student's ability to work with historical documents. Each Short Answer Question has two documents. The documents have been chosen for the purpose of this question. Read the documents and answer the question in a document that reflects the historical context.

Read and analyze the following documents, applying your social studies knowledge and skills to answer the question in a document that reflects the historical context.

For the historical context surrounding documents 1 and 2:

Document 1 will explain how the student is going to answer the question in a document that reflects the historical context.

Write about your answer of one or more paragraphs. Be sure to keep these things in mind:

- to identify something in the documents or tell about it
- to refer to "the relevant historical circumstances surrounding or presenting the relationship in these documents"
- to get a sense of the context

Explain how the student plans to understand the question and answer it. Be sure to show the student's understanding of the question.

Explain how the student plans to understand the question and answer it. Be sure to show the student's understanding of the question.
