Writing Hope Strategies for Writing Success in Secondary Schools Nicole Sieben, 2018-01-11 This book provides ways of thinking about the teaching of writing in secondary schools with applications to college writing and shares research based strategies for immediate use in the classroom. The strengths based classroom tested student centered writing hope strategies shared within the Writing Hope Framework WHF are designed to allow students to work within their own unique writing processes and insert their individual writers voices and styles authentically. The Writing Hope Framework allows students to choose which strategies and stages of the writing process they wish to engage in for purposeful writing goal attainment it recognizes unique writing approaches and accounts for these differences in curricular design and implementation. Teachers can assess the writing abilities and self beliefs of the students in their classes using a variety of strategies provided and then guide students in their pathways selection processes for writing. Given the nature of this research and its application it is the intention of this book to bring readers through a process of hope that can facilitate life hope and writing hope in the classroom for and with students. Hope is not exclusively for the already hopeful students it is also and perhaps more critically for those students who do not presently see hope in their lives but who can. Every student is capable of hope if it is facilitated effectively and purposefully
