The Philosophy of Spike Lee Mark Conard, 2011-07-22 Over his twenty plus year tenure in Hollywood Spike Lee has produced a number of controversial films that unapologetically confront sensitive social issues particularly those of race relations and discrimination Through his honest portrayals of life s social obstacles he challenges the public to reflect on the world s problems and divisions The innovative director created a name for himself with feature films such as Do the Right Thing 1989 and Malcolm X 1992 and with documentaries such as 4 Little Girls 1997 and When the Levees Broke 2006 breaking with Hollywood s reliance on cultural stereotypes to portray African Americans in a more realistic light The director continues to produce poignant films that address some of modern society s most important historical movements and events In The Philosophy of Spike Lee editor Mark T Conard and an impressive list of contributors delve into the rich philosophy behind this filmmaker s extensive work Not only do they analyze the major themes of race and discrimination that permeate Lee s productions but also examine other philosophical ideas that are found in his films ideas such as the nature of time transcendence moral motivation self constitution and justice The authors specialize in a variety of academic disciplines that range from African American Studies to literary and cultural criticism and Philosophy

Lessons from the Damned Nancy E. Stoller, 2021-12-16 First published in 1998 Nancy Stoller records how the poor people of color gay men and lesbians drug users and women have built social movements to fight the impact of AIDS revealing that organizational structure and culture have a greater impact on who is served and how than do public health theories or official organizational goals She draws on ethnographic research and the words of the activists themselves as well as the literature of social movements and theories of bureaucracy In addition to the stories of the organizational strategies the book offers guidelines for dealing with diversity and conflict with both theoretical and practical perspectives on cross community and international organizing Slavery Past, Present and Future Catherine Armstrong, Jaya Priyardarshini, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Spanning swaths of time and space slavery as a phenomenon has known intersections of class gender race caste etc The historical experiences of slaves is more or less lacking in the pedagogic or intellectual knowledge but its legacy in modern times is felt in the marginalisation stigmatisation remorse or shame of the slave descendants Contrary to historical slavery the presence of modern or twenty first century slavery is variously mired in the complex and contested terrains of its definition Today the political and economic context of human conditions globally has muddled the understanding of servitude Its resurgence in newer avatars along with institutional or informal upholders challenges its abolition Hearing the slave voices more than the hegemonic involvement of the abolitionists is required for its complete abolition A unified public activism and awareness as always will go a long way in ending it while upholding social justice Fans and Fandom Holly Swinyard, 2024-06-30 Do you have a Google alert for your favourite band going on tour Or maybe you have a pull list at your local comicbook shop Or perhaps you've got a season ticket to your sports team of choice That would make you a fan whether you realise it or not and there's a lot more to fan culture than you might think In the 21st century pop culture is everywhere you can't move for a new superhero film or major franchise appearing in our lives and we love it We're just jumping into the media landscape headfirst in order to get more of our favs track down spoilers and deep dive about plot lines on social media It's hard to deny fan culture as part of the world now there's a fandom for everyone but what does that actually mean and where did it come from From ancient times to modern media humans have shared their love for the stories that mean something to them and brought in others to be fans of them too We've written ourselves in made art of and celebrated with others who love the same things as us all in the name of being a fan even before the word fan existed There's a whole lot of who where what when why how and huh to look into when it comes to fan culture From Shakespeare to Superman Dickens to Daleks and fanfiction to Frodo there is so much more to fandom than meets the eye And a whole lot of references to pack in too Black Enterprise , 1982-12 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance Watching Porn Lynsey G, 2017-06-06 Lynsey G is an intrepid explorer boldly going where few reporters have gone with such a critical eye deep inside the real world of commercial sex Tina Horn host of the Why Are People Into That podcast Lynsey G never imagined that she would ever work in porn but at twenty four years old with a degree in English literature and an empty bank account she found herself reviewing the film East Coast ASSault for an adult magazine in New York City One interview later and it was official she was a porn journalist The job was supposed to be temporary just a paycheck until she could spark her legitimate writing career but she loved it and spent nearly a decade describing the nuances of money shots and the effectiveness of sex toys As both a porn consumer and a porn critic she was not quite an insider not quite an outsider but came to know the industry intimately She found it so fascinating that she co founded WHACK Magazine Finally she had a platform to voice her thoughts and observations of the adult film world as well as educate the rest of us about what really goes on behind the scenes Eventually Lynsey was thrust back into the real world but not before realizing that one of the most diverse and nebulous and profitable industries on the planet isn't so quite as different from the rest of the world as she thought Tantalizing eye opening and witty Watching Porn is a provocative book about an average girl's foray into the porn industry and the people who make it what it is both in front of and behind the camera Marvelous The New York Times Book Review

Hirji: Growing Up With Tanzania, 2023-04-05 In Growing up with Tanzania Karim Hirji a renowned Professor of Medical Statistics and Fellow of the Tanzania Academy of Science presents a multi faceted evocative portrait of his joyous but conflicted passage to adulthood during colonial and early Uhuru Tanzania His smooth style engages the reader with absorbing true tales cultural currents critical commentary and progressive possibilities By vibrantly contrasting the hope filled sixties with the cynical modern era he also lays bare the paradoxes of personal life and society past and present

Inappropriate Relationships Robin Goodwin, Duncan Cramer, 2005-04-11 In one of the great euphemisms of our time an embattled President Clinton admitted to an inappropriate relationship with his White House intern Monica Lewinsky But what exactly is an inappropriate relationship For that matter what is an appropriate relationship And how can an understanding of the rules of appropriateness help us understand personal relationships in our modern world Contributors to this book discuss the personal boundaries and taboos of modern relationships Together they examine the power struggles that can occur when individuals are involved in inappropriate relationships and the ways individuals in such a relationship may attempt to buffer themselves against sanctions or even embrace this relationship as an agent of social change Representing work from a range of disciplines this collection will appeal to scholars researchers students and professionals working on relationships issues in areas across the social sciences including those working in the fields of social psychology family studies social anthropology cultural studies and communication
