SUMMER. DOYLE, 2024 Rhetoric in Tooth and Claw Debra Hawhee, 2017 Bringing together classical rhetoric and the study of animals is not a trick for the faint of heart Hawhee s ambition and skill here are astonishing combining illumination of major texts of the rhetorical tradition with attention to the way animals show up in these great books of Aristotle Demetrius Longinus Erasmus and others to show that nonhuman animals have made themselves indispensable to theories of language and communication to inquiry and to arts of memory and philosophies of mind Speech or reason logos has traditionally been the focus of rhetoric the art of effective language use but sensation feeling and emotion are just as important and this is where animals enter in In fact they enter in very frequently when discussion centers on the extra rational or nonrational aspects of communication Nonhuman animals serve in these texts at times as sensible objects but in large part they enter rhetoric s theories and treatises as moving sensing creatures as what Hawhee calls partners in feeling to their human counterparts She meanwhile explores the use rhetoricians have made of references to animals in beast fables ecphrases vivid descriptions discussions of memory and mock encomia Animals may emerge through Hawhee s account as partners in feeling but they also function as emblems and her attention to Renaissance emblems and its partner art stylistic depiction plays out some often intricate rhetorical resonances This history of nonhuman animals in rhetoric retells that story thus as one animated by energy force liveliness wondrous diversity and astounding and often bloody violence all at the behest of humans animal partners in feeling
