he acquired Starbucks for US 38 million the company had already 11 stores and about 100 employees He kept almost all the employees because he also wanted to make Starbucks become a social company So he also paid more than the minimum wage cares for good health insurances and even offered stock options to part time employees So it was no surprise that Starbucks had the lowest fluctuation rate among the restaurant and fast food business sector But today also some ex employees mention that the good and social image of Starbucks is a fallacy as there are long working hours and not many chances to be promoted through replicating and refining their successful business model when expanding into emerging foreign markets Positive word of mouth from loyal Starbucks patrons through social media platforms has also attributed to Starbucks becoming a highly profitable brand in foreign countries Starbucks has revolutionized the coffee industry Direct competitors of Starbucks cannot compete with the convenience factor that Starbucks offers their consumers by having their coffee cafe placed in over 30 000 locations worldwide cannot come close to matching the level of positive brand recognition Starbucks has established on a global scale and cannot win over loyal Starbucks customers in the coffee market Moreover Starbucks offers their products in the grocery stores which further helps their brand gain more recognition build more traction and secure the lifetime values of more coffee drinkers Ultimately Starbucks efficaciously leveraged the power of globalization to become a behemoth of a global brand and could not be as profitable nor have grown as rapidly as a multibillion dollar leading international coffee chain if they did not expand beyond the United States Ultimately embracing the globalization has not only allowed Starbucks to dominate a preponderance of foreign coffee markets but has also allowed Starbucks to attain an unprecedented level of profitability brand growth brand recognition brand equity and brand loyalty by capitalizing on lucrative global expansion opportunities
