The game of water polo has perhaps done more during recent years to popularise and to cause an interest to be taken in swimming than any other branch of the sport. It is essentially a game for swimmers and one that affords no lack of opportunity for the exhibition of skill and the development of staying power. Its practice tends to improve the speed rates of all those who participate in the pastime as well as to inculcate in the minds of its followers good ideas as to the best methods of obtaining command over the water. In long distance swims only one style of swimming is as a rule adopted but in water polo the rapid changes of position which are necessary compel players to constantly alter their style. This is in itself a beneficial phase of the game and one which teaches a swimmer how complete may become his power.
