Fertile Crossings Pietro Deandrea, 2021-11-01 In retracing some of the routes followed by West African literature in English over the course of the last three decades this book employs an original multidimensional approach whereby the three main genres narrative poetry and drama are considered in the light of their intricate web of fecund rapport and mutual influence Authors such as Tutuola Armah Aidoo and Awoonor translated the fluid structures of orality into written prose and consequently infused their works with poetic and dramatic resonance thereby challenging the canonical dominance of social realism and paving the way for the birth of West African magical realism in Laing Okri and Cheney Coker Starting in the 1970s poetry on stage has become a mainstream genre in Ghana thanks to performances by Okai Anyidoho and Acquah Boundaries between literary theatre and other genres have undergone a similar dissolution in the affirmation of the concept of total art from Efua Sutherland to ben Abdallah Osofisan and others Fertile Crossings offers a study of these topics from various viewpoints blending in depth textual analysis with reflections on the political import of the works in question within the context of the present state of African societies all supported by interviews with most of the authors The Tough Alchemy of Ben Okri Rosemary Alice Gray,2020-07-23 Winner of the Booker Prize for The Famished Road Ben Okri is widely regarded as one of the most important contemporary writers writing today Featuring a substantial new interview with Ben Okri himself a full bibliography of his creative work and covering his complete works this is the first in depth study of Okri s themes and artistic vision Rosemary Gray explores Okri s career long engagement with myth Nigerian politics and culture and with the environmental crisis in the age of the Anthropocene The Postcolonial Unconscious Neil Lazarus,2011-06-30 The Postcolonial Unconscious is a major attempt to reconstruct the whole field of postcolonial studies In this magisterial and at times polemical study Neil Lazarus argues that the key critical concepts that form the very foundation of the field need to be re assessed and questioned Drawing on a vast range of literary sources Lazarus investigates works and authors from Latin America and the Caribbean Africa and the Arab world South Southeast and East Asia to reconsider them from a postcolonial perspective Alongside this he offers bold new readings of some of the most influential figures in the field Fredric Jameson Edward Said and Frantz Fanon A tour de force of postcolonial studies this book will set the agenda for the future probing how the field has come to develop in the directions it has and why and how it can grow further Representing Scotland in Literature, Popular Culture and Iconography A. Riach,2004-12-10 This fascinating new study is about cultural change and continuities At the core of the book are discrete literary studies of Scotland and Shakespeare Walter Scott R L Stevenson Arthur Conan Doyle the modern Scottish Renaissance of the 1920s and more recent cultural and literary phenomena The central theme of literature and popular representation recontextualises literary analysis in a broader multi faceted picture involving all the arts and the changing sense of what the popular might be in a modern nation New technologies alter forms of cultural production and the book charts a way through these forms from oral poetry and song to the novel and includes studies of paintings classical music socialist drama TV film and comic books The international context for mass media cultural production is examined as the story of the intrinsic curiosity of the imagination and the intensely local aspect of Scotland s cultural self representation unfolds The Columbia Guide to West African Literature in English Since 1945 Oyekan Owomoyela,2008-10-21 Composed by a premier scholar of African literature this volume is a comprehensive guide to the literary traditions of Gambia Sierra Leone Liberia Ghana and Nigeria five distinct countries bound by their
