High School Senior's Guide to Merit and Other No-Need Funding 2002-2004 Gail A. Schlachter,R. David Weber,2002-04 Grants for Scholarships Unyoung E. Chang,1997 Scholarship Funds for Education Institutions Guide to U.S. Foundations, Their Trustees, Officers, and Donors ,1994 High School Senior's Guide to Merit and Other No-need Funding ,2005 Mormon History Ronald Warren Walker,David J. Whittaker,James B. Allen,2001 College Guide for Performing Arts Majors Carole J. Everett,Peterson's,2009-09-14 Describes graduate programs in art dance music and theater and lists undergraduate programs A Guide to Funding Resources ,1994 A Research Guide to Cartographic Resources Eva H. Dodsworth,2018-09-22 The interdisciplinary uses of traditional cartographic resources and modern GIS tools allow for the analysis and discovery of information across a wide spectrum of fields A Research Guide to Cartographic Resources navigates the numerous American and Canadian cartographic resources available in print and online offering researchers academics and students with information on how to locate and access the large variety of resources new and old Dozens of different cartographic materials are highlighted and summarized along with lists of map libraries and geospatial centers and related professional associations A Research Guide to Cartographic Resources consists of 18 chapters two appendices and a detailed index that includes place names and libraries structured in a manner consistent with most reference guides including cartographic categories such as atlases dictionaries gazetteers handbooks maps plans GIS data and other related material Almost all of the resources listed in this guide are categorized by geography down to the county level making efficient work of the type of material required to meet the information needs of those interested in researching place specific cartographic related resources Additionally this guide will help those interested in not only developing a comprehensive collection in these subject areas but get an understanding of what materials are being collected and housed in specific map libraries geospatial centers and their related websites Of particular value are the sections that offer directories of cartographic and GIS libraries as well as comprehensive lists of geospatial datasets down to the county level This volume combines the traditional and historical collections of cartography with the modern applications of GIS based maps and geospatial datasets Scholarship and Loan Program.85-2 United States. Congress. House Education and Labor,1958 Assessing for Learning Peggy L. Maki,2023-07-03 While there is consensus that institutions need to represent their educational effectiveness through documentation of student learning the higher education community is divided between those who support national standardized tests to compare institutions educational effectiveness and those who believe that valid assessment of student achievement is based on assessing the work that students produce along and at the end of their educational journeys This book espouses the latter philosophy what Peggy Maki sees as an integrated and authentic approach to providing evidence of student learning based on the work that students produce along the chronology of their learning She believes that assessment needs to be humanized as opposed to standardized to take into account the demographics of institutions as students do not all start at the same place in their learning. Students also need the tools to assess their own progress. In addition to updating and expanding the contents of her first edition to reflect changes in assessment practices and developments over the last seven years such as the development of technology enabled assessment methods and the national need for institutions to demonstrate that they are using results to improve student learning, Maki focuses on ways to deepen program and institution level assessment within the context of collective inquiry about student learning. Recognizing that assessment is not initially a linear start up process or even necessarily sequential and recognizing that institutions develop processes appropriate for their mission and culture, this book does not take a prescriptive or formulaic approach to building this commitment. What it does present is a framework with examples of processes and strategies to assist faculty staff, administrators and campus leaders to develop a sustainable and shared core institutional process that deepens inquiry into what and how students learn, to identify and improve patterns of weakness that inhibit learning. This book is designed to assist colleges and universities build a sustainable commitment to assessing student learning at both the institution and program levels. It provides the tools for collective inquiry among faculty staff, administrators and students to develop evidence of students' abilities to integrate, apply and transfer learning as well as to construct their own meaning. Each chapter also concludes with 1. an Additional Resources section that includes references to meta sites with further resources so users can pursue particular issues in greater depth and detail and 2. worksheets, guides and exercises designed to build collaborative ownership of assessment. The second edition now covers: Strategies to connect students to an institution's or a program's assessment commitment; Description of the components of a comprehensive institutional commitment that engages the institution, educators and students all as learners; Expanded coverage of direct and indirect assessment methods including technology enabled methods that engage students in the process; New case studies and campus examples covering undergraduate, graduate education and the co-curriculum; New chapter with case studies that presents a framework for a backward designed problem based assessment process anchored in answering open ended research or study questions that lead to improving pedagogy and educational practices; Integration of developments across professional, scholarly and accrediting bodies and disciplinary organizations; Descriptions and illustrations of assessment management systems; Additional examples, exercises, guides and worksheets that align with new content.
