Igniting Prayer's Passion and Power in Us Jr. Walter M Brown, Teresa L. Fry Brown, 2001 Walter M Brown Jr has accomplished something extraordinary in this fine book He brings into sharp focus the nexus between fervent and prayer and evocative preaching set with in the rich linguistic and poetic world of African American spirituality Robert M Franklin Ph D Former President Interdenominational Theological Center The premise used in Igniting Prayer s Passion and Power In Us has produced extraordinary chapel growth experienced by only one half of 1% of this nation s churches Brown s theological studies at the Interdenominational Theological Center Master of Divinity Emory University Master of Theology and Columbia Theological Seminary Doctor of Ministry helped form the bases for this stirring approach to proclamation This unique method of preparation is sure to develop a new appreciation for and devotion to prayer Simple and effective Igniting Prayer s Passion and Power In Us will revolutionize sermon preparation All Christians can glean helpful insight into improving their prayer life Workbook Study Guide available at Wmalolm aol com

Congregation & Community Nancy Tatom Ammerman, Arthur Emery Farnsley, 1997 Why do some religious institutions decline in the face of racial integration whilst others grow How do congregations deal with economic distress This study of congregations in the face of community transformation includes stories of over 20 congregations in nine communities across America

Every Time I Feel the Spirit Timothy Nelson, 2005 Dreams and visions prophetic words from God about dusty souls speaking in tongues while in the spirit narratives of these and similar events comprise the heart of Every Time I Feel the Spirit This in depth study of a Black congregation in Charleston South Carolina provides a window into the tremendously important yet still largely overlooked world of African American religion as the faith is lived by ordinary believers For decades scholars have been preoccupied with the relation between Black Christianity civil rights and social activism Every Time I Feel the Spirit is about black religion as religion It focuses on the everyday experience of religion in the church congregants relationships with God and the role that God and Satan play in congregants lives not only as objects of belief but as actual agents It explores the concepts of religious experience and religious ritual while emphasizing the attributions that people make to the operation of spiritual forces and beings in their lives Through interviews and field work Nelson uncovers what religious people themselves see as important about their faith while extending and refining sociological understandings of religious ritual and religious experience
