

Writing a UCAS Personal Statement

The purpose of a personal statement is to help a university or college to find out about you and your suitability for the course you are applying for. It is an opportunity for you to present your goals, experiences, achievements and qualifications in the best possible way as well as demonstrating your writing ability.

A lot of universities and colleges do not interview, they will use your application and personal statement to decide whether or not you are suitable for the course. It is therefore vital that you spend time and care on your personal statement. Tutors not only look at your academic achievements, they want to gain an impression of your motivation, ability, interests and personality.

What should be included in your statement?

You should provide detail on the following and not just list them.

- Your reasons for choosing the course
Explain why you think the subject is interesting, why it is important to you, and why you are enthusiastic about that particular course.
- Reference to any future plans or career aspirations
What are your short or long term goals and career ideas?
Have you got any ideas about what you would like to do after graduation?
- Extra curriculum/outside interests and hobbies
Talk about your hobbies or interests to give an impression of you as a person. Include any positions of responsibility held or awards you have won. Describe what you have gained from your interests, rather than just providing a list.

Camara, Ernest W. Kimmel, 2005-03-23 This volume brings a variety of perspectives to bear on the issue of how higher education institutions can or should choose students during the early part of the 21st century Many of the contributors report on research to develop and validate potential tools to assist those responsible for admission decisions Other contributors however pose broader questions about the nature of selective admissions about institutional responses to the changing demography of those seeking to enter higher education or about the appropriate criteria of success in higher education The volume is particularly timely because the question of how changes in admission tools and processes will affect campus diversity following the recent Supreme Court decision concerning the University of Michigan Diversity is an important concern of all of the contributors and the chapter by Lee Bollinger President at Michigan at the time the court cases were filed is particularly relevant This book brings together the research that underlies a variety of proposed approaches to improving the selection of students Providing support for the integrity of the admissions process and the validity of new tools to help a higher education institution to select a diverse student body this book explores the implications of the assessment component of K 12 school reform for higher education admissions practices The diverse contributions to this volume reflect the current ferment in educational research and educational practice as institutions of higher education seek to develop a new admissions paradigm for coming decades following the University of Michigan decisions This book is intended for those leaders and professionals who set admission policies and practices in American colleges and graduate and professional schools as well as for those scholars and scientists who research develop and validate tools for use in the process of choosing students in ways that are congruent with an institution s mission values and goals

A Dark Night in Aurora Dr. William H. Reid, 2018-07-24 James Holmes killed or wounded seventy people in a movie theater in Aurora Colorado Only one man was allowed to record extensive interviews with the shooter This is what he found On July 20 2012 in Aurora Colorado a man in dark body armor and a gas mask entered a midnight premiere of The Dark Knight Rises with a tactical shotgun a high capacity assault rifle and a sidearm He threw a canister of tear gas into the crowd and began firing Soon twelve were dead and fifty eight were wounded young children and pregnant women were among them The man was found calmly waiting at his car He was detained without resistance Unlike the Columbine Newtown San Bernadino and Las Vegas shootings James Holmes is unique among mass shooters in his willingness to be taken into custody alive In the court case that followed only Dr William H Reid a distinguished forensic psychiatrist would be allowed to record interviews with the defendant Reid would read Holmes diary investigate his phone calls and text messages interview his family and acquaintances speak to his victims and review tens of thousands of pages of evidence and court testimony in an attempt to understand how a happy seemingly normal child could become a killer A Dark Night in Aurora uses the twenty three hours of unredacted interview transcripts never seen by the public and Reid s research to bring the reader inside the mind of a mass murderer The result is chilling gripping study of abnormal psychology and how a lovely boy named Jimmy became a killer

Doing Our Own Thing John McWhorter, 2004-09-09 McWhorter is a gifted young linguist who seeks to understand the change in our verbal habits rather than just bemoan it and his analysis is insightful richly documented and yes eloquently written Steven Pinker author of The Blank Slate and The Language Instinct In Doing Our Own Thing critically acclaimed linguist and cultural critic John McWhorter traces the precipitous decline of language in contemporary America arguing persuasively that casual everyday speech has conquered the formal in all arenas from oratory to poetry to everyday journalism and has even had dire consequences for our musical culture McWhorter argues that the swift and startling change in written and oral communication emanated from the countercultural revolution of the 1960s and its ideology that established forms and formality were autocratic and artificial While acknowledging that the evolution of language is in and of itself inevitable and often benign he warns that the near total loss of formal expression in America is unprecedented in modern history and has reached a crisis point in our culture such that our very ability to convey ideas and arguments effectively is gravely threatened By turns compelling and harrowing passionate and judicious Doing Our Own Thing is required reading for all concerned about the state of our language and the future of intellectual life in America

The Student Advantage Guide to the Best Graduate Programs Nell Goddin, Jonathan Spaihts, Princeton Review (Firm), 1996-09 California Notes, 1981 The Future of Being Human and Other Essays Sylvia Engdahl, 2020-01-28
What will humans be like in the future According to science fiction author Sylvia Engdahl they will be no different from what they are like now There will be many innovations in technology and ways of daily life but people are people wherever and whenever they happen to live and that is not going to change In this book Engdahl departs from the theme of space colonization on which her past essays available in her book From This Green Earth have focused and discusses such topics as artificial intelligence paranormal psi powers healthcare policy and the coming loss of personal privacy Her controversial views on these subjects will inspire thought about what the future is likely to bring
