Ukzn Application 2016:

ICEL 2017 - Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017

Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerman, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement. In 1994, as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order, the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency, the South African Police Service (SAPS), that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people. More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms, it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity. This book offers a unique perspective by providing in-depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa. It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy. Using the organizational theory of police integrity, the book analyzes the complex set of historical, legal, political, social, and economic circumstances shaping police integrity. A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules, their expectations of discipline within the SAPS, and their willingness to report misconduct. The book also examines the influence of the respondents' race, gender, and supervisory status on police integrity. Written in a clear and direct style, this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology, policing, sociology, political science, as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations.

Proceedings of the International Conference Theory and Applications in the Knowledge Economy TAKE 2017 Blazenka Knezevic, Gaby Neumann, 2017-07-08 Foreword: A famous Portuguese Poet once said around one hundred years ago: "before I was born, all the words that should save the Humanity had already been written; the only thing that was missing was to save Humanity." Fast forward to the 21st century: services-led and knowledge-based economy, and we have myriads of theoretical studies about the decisive assets, namely intangibles. Those analyses are made in several perspectives, namely Human Resources, Knowledge Management, Intellectual Capital, and also many sectorial perspectives, like Trade, Economics, Logistics, Social Policy, etc. However, today the question about the applicability of all these studies remains unsolved. So, it is like many of the words that will save the Knowledge Economy have already been written; all we need is to save the Knowledge Economy. Or is it not? The idea behind the TAKE Conference was to provide a multidisciplinary forum in which those multiple perspectives will come together. We believe it is a fruitful operation, and we intend to continue the exercise in the future. The problem of the relation between theory and practice in the knowledge economy is getting more important and not less important with the development of the BRICS and other nations. The TAKE main question will be one of the problems of the 21st century. Following the promising start of TAKE 2016 in Aveiro, Portugal, TAKE 2017 was organized by the Faculty of Economics of Zagreb University. Around Prof. Blazenka Knezevic, I would like to thank her and her team for the massive effort in putting TAKE 2017

together It will be a very nice and memorable conference I would like also to thank the 5 keynotes the special sessions and workshop organizes the authors of the 60 papers and 5 posters the stream leaders the reviewers and the sponsors for the efforts And to the 90 participants from 20 countries Austria Bosnia Herzegovina Canada Croatia Germany Hong Kong Hungary Netherlands Mexico Portugal Poland Romania Russia South Africa Serbia Slovakia Spain Thailand United Kingdom United States A special word to Prof Gaby Neumann from Wildau who organized the Proceedings Let us make TAKE 2017 a great occasion and help save the knowledge economy a bit Eduardo Tom Conference Chair Zagreb July 2017 ICEL 2018
