Bentley, Herbert F. Ziegler, 2006 On the basis of a superficial inspection Traditions Encounters might look similar to several other textbooks that survey the world's past Like other books for example Traditions Encounters examines the historical development of societies in Asia Europe Africa the Americas and Oceania Yet Traditions Encounters differs from other works in two particularly important ways First it relies on a pair of prominent themes to bring a global perspective to the study of world history it traces the historical development of individual societies in all world regions and it also focuses attention systematically on interactions between peoples of different societies Second it organizes the human past into seven eras that represent distinct and coherent periods of global historical development Preface Page xvi Accounting Robert W. Ingram, 2005 This innovative contemporary and relevant text focuses on the use of accounting information for decision making and places students into situations where management decisions need to be made Students learn both when and why accounting information is key to communicating important information within an organization so that as managers they can make informed choices The first half of the text demonstrates how organizations use accounting information to make financing investing and operating decisions The second half emphasizes managerial accounting as a key communication process for management decision making Strategic Management Michael A.
