Cartographies of Exclusion Asa Simon Mittman, 2024-06-18 From the battles over Jerusalem to the emergence of the Holy Land from legally mandated ghettos to the Edict of Expulsion geography has long been a component of Christian Jewish relations Attending to world maps drawn by medieval Christian mapmakers Cartographies of Exclusion brings us to the literal drawing board of Christendom and shows the creation in real time of a mythic state intended to dehumanize the non Christian people it ultimately sought to displace In his close analyses of English maps from the twelfth and thirteenth centuries Asa Mittman makes a valuable contribution to conversations about medieval Christian perceptions of Jews and Judaism Grounding his arguments in the history of anti Jewish sentiment and actions rampant in twelfth and thirteenth century England Mittman shows how English world maps of the period successfully Othered Jewish people by means of four primary strategies conflating Jews with other groups spreading libels about Jewish bodies beliefs and practices associating Jews with Satan and most importantly cartographically mislocating Jews in time and space On maps Jews were banished to locations and historical moments with no actual connection to Jewish populations or histories Medieval Christian anti Semitism is the foundation upon which modern anti Semitism rests and the medieval mapping of Jews was crucial to that foundation Mittman's thinking offers essential insights for any scholar interested in the interface of cartography politics and religion in premodern Europe

Fracturing the Founding John E. Finn, 2019-03-15 Many in the radical right including the Tea Party the militia movement the Alt right Christian nationalists the Oath Keepers neo Nazis and a host of others brand themselves as constitutional patriots In Fracturing the Founding: How the Alt Right Corrupts the Constitution John E Finn one of America's leading constitutional scholars argues that these professions of constitutional devotion serve an important function in mainstreaming the radical right's ideological and policy agenda to camouflage its racism bigotry and sexism to appeal to a broader audience The constitution the extreme right holds as its faith is an odd admixture of the forgotten the rejected the racist and the bizarre Finn illuminates the central precepts of the Alt constitution and shows how and where it differs from the true American Constitution The differences are disturbing The Alt constitution emphasizes absolute rights and unassailable liberties especially for freedom of speech and guns no matter the public interest states rights and a corresponding suspicion of the federal government racial classifications recognized and legitimated by law and privilege for white Christians Finn's book will appeal to all readers interested in contemporary American politics the contemporary radical right the Founding and the history of America's constitution

The Art of Peace Juliana Geran Pilon, 2017-07-05 Sun Tzu author of The Art of War believed that the acme of leadership consists in figuring out how to subdue the enemy with the least amount of fighting a fact that America's Founders also understood and practiced with astonishing success For it to work however a people must possess both the ability and the willingness to use all available instruments of power in peace as much as in war US foreign policy has increasingly neglected the instruments of civilian power and become overly dependent on lethal solutions to conflict The steep rise in unconventional conflict has increased the need for diplomatic and other non hard power tools of statecraft The United States can no longer afford to sit on the proverbial three legged national security stool military diplomacy development where one leg is a lot longer than either of the other two almost forgetting altogether the fourth leg information especially strategic communication and public diplomacy The United States isn't so much becoming militarized as DE civilianized According to Sun Tzu self knowledge is as important as knowledge of one's enemy if you know neither yourself nor the enemy you will succumb in every battle Alarmingly the United States is deficient on both counts And though we can stand to lose a few battles the stakes of losing the war itself in this age of nuclear proliferation are too high to contemplate
