Committee on Oversight and Government Reform. Subcommittee on Federal Workforce, Postal Service, and the District of Columbia,2009 Disposal of Federal Real Property United States. Congress. House. Committee on Oversight and Government Reform,2012 Reinventing the Postal Sector in an Electronic Age Michael A. Crew,Paul R. Kleindorfer,2011-01-01 This compilation of original essays by an international cast of economists regulators and industry practitioners analyzes some of the major issues now facing postal and delivery services throughout the world as competition from information and communication technologies ICT has increased Competition has become increasingly important in the postal sector for some time in the form of alternative entrants providing mail delivery However the competition from ICT in the form of email and instant messaging the Internet Facebook and other forms of social networking and portable wireless devices such as the iPad and Kindle may be even more significant Mail volumes are falling and the economies of scale that have made possible daily deliveries to every address are being eroded This book assesses volume these declines resulting from this so called eSubstituion and looks at the ways the postal sector can adapt to the rapid changes resulting from ICT The impact of electronic invoicing on transactions mail and the impact on bulk mail of electronic forms of advertising are examined Strategies including pricing and access policies are discussed in the context of the increasing impact of ICT A rethinking of the role of mail in an electronic age is taking place and this book provides the cutting edge of this rethinking and the attempts of POs to reinvent themselves while continuing to meet the public s expectation of continuing ubiquitous daily deliveries of traditional mail products Undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers in regulation competition law innovation and public sector economics along with institutional libraries and industry professionals will find this volume informative and useful U. S. Postal Service: Escalating Financial Problems Require Major Cost Reductions to Limit Losses Phillip Herr,2009-11 USPS s financial condition has deteriorated Mail volume declined by a record 9 5 billion pieces 4 5% in FY 2008 leading to a loss of 2 8 billion the second largest since 1971 This was largely due to declines in the economy esp in the financial and housing sectors as well as shifts in transactions messages and advertising from mail to electronic alternatives Declining mail volume flattened revenues despite rate increases while USPS s cost cutting efforts were insufficient to offset the impact of declining mail volume and rising costs in fuel and cost of living allowances for postal employees This testimony focuses on 1 USPS s financial condition and outlook and 2 options for USPS to remain financially viable in the short and long term Illus

Governing to Win Charles Prow,2012-04-12 Charles Prow has brought together an impressive lineup of businessmen and women reporters and experts to show how the United States can be more competitive in the global economy This book shows not only what is wrong with the current federal spending plan but ways to fix it Business professionals and anyone interested in the government's response the recession will find this an important book U. S. Postal Service: Financial Crisis

Demands Aggressive Action Phillip Herr,2010-09 The U S Postal Service's USPS financial condition and outlook deteriorated significantly during FY 2009 USPS was not able to cut costs fast enough to offset declining mail volume and revenues resulting from the economic recession and changes in the use of mail such as electronic bill payment The USPS needs to restructure to improve its financial viability Declines in mail volume and revenue large financial losses increasing debt and financial obligations will continue to challenge USPS This testimony provides 1 info on USPS's financial condition and forecast and 2 the need for USPS restructuring In addition questions and issues are included for Congress to consider regarding USPS's proposal to reduce delivery from 6 to 5 days Congressional Record United States. Congress,2009

Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on Post Office and Civil Service United States. Congress. House. Committee on Post Office and Civil Service,1974 Letters, Power Lines, and Other Dangerous Things Ryan Ellis,2020-03-03 An examination of how post 9 11 security concerns have transformed the public view and governance of infrastructure After September 11 2001 infrastructures the mundane systems that undergird much of modern life were suddenly considered soft targets that required immediate security enhancements Infrastructure protection quickly became the multibillion dollar core of a new and expansive homeland security mission In this book Ryan Ellis examines how the long shadow of post 9 11 security concerns have remade and reordered infrastructure arguing that it has been a stunning transformation Ellis describes the way workers civic groups city councils bureaucrats and others used the threat of terrorism as a political resource taking the opportunity not only to address security vulnerabilities but also to reassert a degree of public control over infrastructure Nearly two decades after September 11 the threat of terrorism remains etched into the inner workings of infrastructures through new laws regulations technologies and practices Ellis maps these changes through an examination of three U S infrastructures the postal system the freight rail network and the electric power grid He describes for example how debates about protecting the mail from anthrax and other biological hazards spiraled into larger arguments over worker rights the power of large volume mailers and the fortunes of old media in a new media world how environmental activists leveraged post 9 11 security fears over shipments of hazardous materials to take on the rail industry and the chemical lobby and how otherwise marginal federal regulators parlayed new mandatory cybersecurity standards for the electric power industry into a robust system of accountability International Marketing Research V.
