

UBD LESSON PLAN TEMPLATE

Students will design a lesson plan that includes a combination of teaching reading strategies. Also appropriate: vocabulary development, terminology, classroom environment enrichment through texts, teacher text collection, reading circles, etc.

You decide. You may also 'model' a lesson that your cooperating teacher(s) have employed.

Lesson Topic: _____ Classification _____ Grade level: _____ 6 - 8 _____
 Length of lesson: _____ 50 min _____

STAGE 1 - DESIRED RESULTS

Content Standard(s):

- The students will use and create dichotomous keys
- The students will recognize how scientific knowledge is subject to change as new evidence becomes available, or as new theories cause scientists to look at old observations differently

Understanding (s)/goals
 Students will understand:

- The methods involved in creating a classification system
- The reasons/importance of classification in science as well as in our daily lives

Essential Question(s):

- Why do we classify?
- Is there a "right" way to classify?
- Why is a dog not a fish?

Student objectives (outcomes):

Students will be able to:

- Create a dichotomous key or flow chart using a logical method to classify at least ten individual objects.
- Compare their own classification methods and difficulties to those of professional scientists.

STAGE 2 – ASSESSMENT EVIDENCE

Performance Task(s):

- Students will construct their own dichotomous key or flow chart to classify 20 different household items.

Other Evidence:

- In groups, develop a classification system for shoes
- Groups will present their methods to the class.

STAGE 3 – LEARNING PLAN

"Unique" shoes
 Introduction (10 min)
 Body (30 min)
 Conclusion (10 min)

Grant P. Wiggins, Jay McTighe, 2005 What is understanding and how does it differ from knowledge How can we determine the big ideas worth understanding Why is understanding an important teaching goal and how do we know when students have attained it How can we create a rigorous and engaging curriculum that focuses on understanding and leads to improved student performance in today's high stakes standards based environment Authors Grant Wiggins and Jay McTighe answer these and many other questions in this second edition of Understanding by Design Drawing on feedback from thousands of educators around the world who have used the UbD framework since its introduction in 1998 the authors have greatly revised and expanded their original work to guide educators across the K 16 spectrum in the design of curriculum assessment and instruction With an improved UbD Template at its core the book explains the rationale of backward design and explores in greater depth the meaning of such key ideas as essential questions and transfer tasks Readers will learn why the familiar coverage and activity based approaches to curriculum design fall short and how a focus on the six facets of understanding can enrich student learning With an expanded array of practical strategies tools and examples from all subject areas the book demonstrates how the research based principles of Understanding by Design apply to district frameworks as well as to individual units of curriculum Combining provocative ideas thoughtful analysis and tested approaches this new edition of Understanding by Design offers teacher designers a clear path to the creation of curriculum that ensures better learning and a more stimulating experience for students and teachers alike STEM Education: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications

Cross-disciplinary STEM Learning for Asian Primary Students Winnie Wing Mui So, Zhi Hong Wan, Tian Luo, 2023-11-27 Given the importance of student learning in the various types and integration of STEM education this book provides a landscape of cross disciplinary STEM learning in Asian primary schools and a systematic overview of design practices and outcomes of STEM learning implementation Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics STEM has continued to attract attention worldwide and there have been calls for the promotion of STEM education in primary schools to nurture students to meet the needs of societies in terms of innovation and technology development Since STEM is complex in nature and is related to various disciplines the effort of a single discipline may not be as effective as cross disciplinary efforts This edited volume involving an Asian team of authors examines how cross disciplinary STEM learning can be designed for students to achieve viable outcomes and what opportunities and challenges have been offered to the next generation to equip them with the necessary skills knowledge and ways of thinking as well as attitudes and values for lifelong learning A resourceful text for students researchers and practitioners interested in the rich development of STEM education and practical methods for a variety of learning approaches from elementary to secondary education has been provided

Effectively Using Data for Educator Preparation Program Improvement Christine Carrino Gorowara, Erica M. Brownstein, Timothy Wall, 2023-05-01 This volume provides a synthesis of protocols and strategies to support assessment leaders in effectively using data for educator preparation program improvement Data informed decision making has become increasingly important in quality assurance for both internal and external audiences yet there are scant resources to guide those charged with managing the development and application of data for monitoring and improving the quality of their programs Until this work there has been little explication of how assessment directors working in educator preparation should conceptualize organize and implement best practices in data collection analysis interpretation and sharing As state and national expectations for evidence of quality are growing it is essential to chronicle the collective wisdom of assessment leaders in education preparation in one manuscript For both novice and experienced assessment directors this volume offers insightful perspectives and excellent strategies to facilitate the journey from complying with external expectations to strategically using data and evidence to achieve goals leveraging assessment to achieve socially just outcomes involving multiple voices and interpreters and opening windows to further inquiry The editors have gathered experts in all phases of the assessment process and organized their work in an easy to follow manner This work provides both conceptual underpinnings of educator preparation quality assurance as well as practical lessons learned that will support the transformation of an assessment professional into an assessment leader ENSORSEMENTS Finally a book that shows what we can learn from accreditation collectively The strength of the volume lies in the concrete examples of evaluation and improvement that are woven throughout the chapters Effectively Using Data for Educator Preparation Improvement is a welcome addition to the small but growing body of useful literature related to quality assurance work in the field Mark LaCelle Peterson Ed D President and CEO Association for Advancing Quality in Educator Preparation The volume Effectively Using Data for Educator Preparation Program Improvement provides many examples of how providers collect data and evidence to establish or enhance quality assurance The publication will be of value to any provider seeking to enhance quality and improve their programs The publication is particularly timely given many state efforts to increase enrollments and diversity which have resulted in lowered standards Having measures and evidence of quality provide a necessary counter balance to these efforts Christopher Koch Ed D President Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation Effectively Using Data for Educator Preparation Program Improvement assists educators in data informed research and practice to improve programs diversify the profession and ensure that our teacher candidates are profession ready Written predominantly for the assessment director or leaders as the editors posit this volume goes beyond that goal to add a valuable resource for all of us who care about the field of educator preparation I highly recommend this book to the field as we work together to elevate the teaching profession Lynn M Gangone Ed D President CEO American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education
