

The Actual UC Essay Prompts

- #1: Describe an example of your leadership experience in which you have positively influenced others, helped resolve disputes, or contributed to group efforts over time.
- #2: Every person has a creative side, and it can be expressed in many ways: problem solving, original and innovative thinking, and artistically, to name a few. Describe how you express your creative side.
- #3: What would you say is your greatest talent or skill? How have you developed and demonstrated that talent over time?
- #4: Describe how you have taken advantage of a significant educational opportunity or worked to overcome an educational barrier you have faced.
- #5: Describe the most significant challenge you have faced and the steps you have taken to overcome this challenge. How has this challenge affected your academic achievement?
- #6: Think about an academic subject that inspires you. Describe how you have furthered this interest inside and/or outside of the classroom.
- #7: What have you done to make your school or your community a better place?
- #8: Beyond what has already been shared in your application, what do you believe makes you stand out as a strong candidate for admissions to the University of California?

How to Tell the UC Essay Prompts Apart

To help tell the UC personal statement prompts apart, sort them into big-picture categories, so when you're brainstorming ideas you can see where your event or life experience would fit.

- Topics 1 and 7 are about your engagement with the people, things, and ideas around you. Consider the impact of the outside world on you and how you handled that impact.
- Topics 2 and 6 are about your inner self, what defines you, and what makes you the person that you are. Consider your interior makeup, the characteristics of the inner you.
- Topics 3, 4, 5, and 8 are about your achievements. Consider what you've accomplished in life and what you are proud of doing.

These very broad categories will help when you're brainstorming ideas and life experiences to write about for your essay. Of course, it's true that many of the stories you think of can be shaped to fit each of these prompts. Still, think about what the experience most reveals about you.

If it's an experience that shows how you have handled the people and places around you, it'll work better for questions in the first group. If it's a description of how you express yourself, it's a good match for questions in group two. If it's an experience that tells how you acted or what you did, it's probably a better fit for questions in group three.

Who Can Speak and Who Is Heard/Hurt? Mahmoud Arghavan, Nicole Hirschfelder, Luvena Kopp, Katharina Motyl, 2019-04-10 Ethnic diversity race and racism have been subject to discussion in American Studies departments at German universities for many years It appears that especially in the past few decades ethnic minorities and new immigrants have increasingly become objects of scholarly inquiry Such research questions focus on the U S and other traditionally multicultural societies that have emerged out of historical situations shaped by settler colonialism slavery and or large scale immigration Paradoxically these studies have overwhelmingly been conducted by white scholars born in Germany and holding German citizenship Scholars with actual experience of racial discrimination have remained largely unheard Departing from a critique of practices employed by the German branch of American Studies the volume offers self reflective approaches by scholars from different fields in the German Humanities It thereby seeks to provide a solid basis for thorough and candid discussions of the mechanisms behind and the implications of racialized power relations in the German Humanities and German society at large

The Minoan Epiphany - A Bronze Age Visionary Culture Bruce Rimell, 2021-01-02 The art and iconography of the Minoan civilisation of Bronze Age Crete is rightly described as having a refreshing vitality with a fortunate combination of stylisation and spontaneity in which the artist is able to transform conventional imagery into a personal expression The dynamism torsion and naturalism evident in Minoan art stands in stark contrast to the hieratic rigidity of other ancient civilisations and nowhere is this more apparent than in the iconography of the Minoan Epiphany a set of mainly glyptic rings seals and seal impression images which appear to depict religious celebrants experiencing direct and seemingly ecstatic encounters with deities This collection of essays explores this central aspect of Minoan religion taking a strongly archaeological focus to allow the artefacts to speak for themselves and moving from traditional representational interpretations into embodied perspectives in which the ecstatic capabilities of the human body throw new light on Aegean Bronze Age ritual practices Such ideas challenge rather passive assumptions modern Western observers hold about the nature of religious feelings and experiences in particular the depictions of altered states of consciousness in ancient art and the visionary potential of dance gestures Speculative asides on the potential for a Minoan origin for Classical Greek humanism and hints in the imagery on ancient Cretan conceptions of the cosmos are set against sound archaeological theories to explain this lively and dynamic corpus of images Beautifully illustrated with images and sketches of the relevant artefacts this wide ranging volume will stimulate audiences with archaeological prehistorical and spiritual interests as well as historians of religion and art The Minoan Epiphany also represents an influential antecedent to the Visionary Humanist philosophy which forms the majority of Bruce's current independent research interests
