Pontso Moorosi,Tony Bush

Udsm Postgraduate Application Form 2015 16:

Preparation and Development of School Leaders in Africa Pontso Moorosi, Tony Bush, 2019-11-28 The book is based on African research and reviews on school leadership preparation and development taking stock of where the field is in this geographical region and what lies ahead The exclusive focus on sub Saharan African countries is driven by the desire to foreground African experiences highlighting gaps and asking critical questions about contextually relevant models of leadership that can drive towards improved educational outcomes for African children The countries explored include Botswana Cameroon Ghana Kenya Lesotho Namibia Nigeria South Africa and Tanzania Written by a collective of seasoned researchers with extensive experience in the field and on the continent this volume is timely as the field is in need of serious political attention For these reasons the book is an important resource for policy makers school leaders and other practitioners students educators of school leadership preparation programmes as well as researchers in the field on the continent and the diaspora Original Strategies for Training and Educational Initiatives in Bioinformatics Hugo Verli, Raquel Cardoso de Melo Minardi, 2022-10-07 Research Universities in Africa Nico Cloete, Ian Bunting, 2018-11-09 From the early 2000s a new discourse emerged in Africa and the international donor community that higher education was important for development in Africa Within this zeitgeist of converging interests a range of agencies agreed that a different collaborative approach to linking higher education to development was necessary This led to the establishment of the Higher Education Research and Advocacy Network in Africa Herana to concentrate on research and advocacy about the possible role and contribution of universities to development in Africa This book is the final publication to emerge from the Herana project The project has also published more than 100 articles chapters reports manuals and datasets and many presentations have been delivered to share insights gained from the work done by Herana Given its prolific dissemination it seems reasonable to ask whether this fourth and final publication will offer the reader anything new This book is certainly different from previous publications in several respects First it is the only book to include an analysis of eight African universities based on the full 15 years of empirical data collected by the project Second previous books and reports were published mid project This book has benefited from an extended gestation period allowing the authors and contributors to reflect on the project without the distractions associated with managing and participating in a large scale project For the first time some of those who have been involved in Herana since its inception have had the opportunity to at least make an attempt to see part of the wood for the trees Different does not necessarily mean new An emphasis on the newness of the data and perspectives presented in this book is important because it shows that it is more than a historical record of a donor funded project Rather each chapter in this book brings to a lesser or greater extent something new to our understanding of universities research and development in Africa Sustainable Tourism Development in Tanzania Wineaster Anderson, Lena Mossberg, Tommy D. Andersson, 2020-12-11 Tanzania is rivalled by few countries if any in terms of its bountiful natural and cultural tourist attractions Given that tourism development if sustainable is an outstanding policy for distributing welfare even to less developed parts of a country this field is of particular importance to Tanzania In this edited volume prominent scholars focus on the practises and policies of tourism development with a particular eye on the case of Tanzania They explore the demand for sustainability from international tourists the need for local food and linkages between the tourism and agricultural sectors and the production of tourism services in a responsible and inclusive way The book will be a valuable source of knowledge for the tourism industry as well as policymakers scholars and students who are concerned about the development of a form of tourism which benefits a country inclusively and responsibly Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015

(Volume 2) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-07-16 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Volume 2 allows users to locate organizations by the country in which secretariats or members are located
