Uj School Holidays 2014:

Learning and Using Languages in Ethnographic Research Robert Gibb, Annabel Tremlett, Julien Danero Iglesias, 2019-10-11 Learning and Using Languages in Ethnographic Research breaks the silence that still surrounds learning a language for ethnographic research and in the process demystifies some of the multilingual aspects of contemporary ethnographic work. It does this by offering a set of engaging and accessible accounts of language learning and use written by ethnographers who are at different stages of their academic career. A key theme is how researchers' experiences of learning and using other languages in fieldwork contexts relate to wider structures of power hierarchy and inequality. The volume aims to promote a wider debate among researchers about how they themselves learn and use different languages in their work and to help future fieldworkers make more informed choices when carrying out ethnographic research using other languages.

New Directions in Garden Tourism Richard W. Benfield, 2020-12-08 Following on from the success of Garden Tourism, this book provides an update on the statistics and growth of the global phenomenon of garden visitation. It delves into new themes and contemporary trends from art and culture to psychographic profiling of visitors and how social media and semiotics are used to enrich visitor experience and fuel motivation. In addition to these new topics, the book also expands on important areas such as the continued rise of urban gardens, garden events, historic gardens, and garden economics.

Teaching across the Curriculum Akpovire Oduaran, James Omonu, Walter Lumadi, Kola Kazeem, 2021-11-16 The COVID-19 pandemic posed a serious challenge to teaching across the educational system. Many young people in Africa now perceive education as fraudulent and not useful in providing employment and sustaining their lives. Thus, it becomes sacrosanct for teachers to adjust their methods of teaching in line with the reality of our time. This book will serve to help teachers and lecturers to be dynamic, efficient, and effective in their chosen profession. It was written by scholars with many years of teaching and researching on professional development in different specialties in Africa and has been peer-reviewed by eminent and highly rated scholars from various universities throughout the continent.
