Belonging Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2025-09-23 What does it mean to belong Across oceans and centuries this sweeping narrative shuttles between the corridors of the Colonial Office in London the contested streets of Durban and the changing power dynamics within the British Raj The first boatload of indentured Indians arrived in Natal in 1860 Thousands were to follow In haunting detail the book captures the plight of these labourers as well as the vicious onslaught faced by the merchant class for daring to outpace their colonial rivals At its core are the untold struggles of Indian South Africans as they confront the ever present threat of repatriation Sensitive to shifting political terrains the book weaves together seismic events the independence of India the coming of apartheid and the threat once more of mass expulsions with the texture of everyday life The granting of citizenship in 1961 is accompanied by mass relocations as the Group Areas Act rips communities from their roots Yet out of this despair barren townships on the edges of cities are turned into places of hope In the final chapters the fall of apartheid offers a moment of transcendence Yet it also asks what does it mean at last to belong It is a fascinating story of the global and the local of resistance and collaboration and undefeated optimism This is a book for anyone who has ever sought a place to

Leadership and Management Strategies for Creating Agile Universities Connolly, Thomas M., Farrier, Stephen, 2021-12-03 The global higher education sector has changed dramatically as universities continue to face unprecedented challenges associated with the COVID 19 pandemic Many are struggling to navigate this crisis while maintaining high quality course delivery ensuring strong student recruitment numbers and providing clear communication to staff and students Issues have emerged at an exponential rate and coping with the pandemic has been particularly difficult for universities as they serve several functions such as being educational institutions as well as major employers Leadership and Management Strategies for Creating Agile Universities reflects on the challenges that higher education institutions have faced during the pandemic and the associated projected socio economic impact yet to be felt It also considers how different universities have addressed the challenges so as to learn what has and has not worked and speculates what future implications exist for the vision of a new higher education sector in a changing world Covering topics such as developmental leadership IT governance and lifelong learning it is ideal for policymakers industry professionals academicians researchers governors decision makers teachers and students Mediating Learning in Higher Education in Africa ,2021-05-25

Historically African higher education teaching and learning have relied on Western models paradigms assumptions concepts and procedures among other research related aspects Western hegemony and ideology has influenced and continues to influence the epistemologies and both the methods and outcome of higher education research The connection between teaching and learning is that teaching generates new forms of learning and learning challenges methods of teaching Western claims to universality objectivity and neutrality have dominated research paradigms in African higher education institutions to the detriment of alternative approaches and conceptions of knowledge Methods aligned to African teaching and learning are often unrecognised and thus underutilised despite calls for the mantra for decolonial research methods What are the African indigenous ways of teaching and learning How are they related to the present African university These puzzling questions provoke the minds of scholars on Africa to confront the discourse on decolonisation of higher education as they engage head on and interrogate contemporary teaching and learning methods Mediating Learning in Higher Education in Africa From Critical Thinking to Social Justice Pedagogies provides critical reflections to some of the above questions that affect African Higher Education as it seeks to transform itself and provide directions for the future Expanding Approaches to Bible Translation James A. Maxey,2025-05-22 The assertion in this book included within the BPC series is that translation is as fundamental to biblical material as performance both in its history as well as in its research approaches Translation in this sense is more than a transference of meaning from one linguistic system to another Bible translation highlights innovative connections and conceptions to biblical texts in their promulgation reception and ever changing nature A predominant theory used throughout this book is social semiotic multimodality This communication theory informs an approach to translation that expands beyond words to other semiotic resources Sign Language embodied performance social media theater materiality and many other types of multimodal communications inform translation It is important to understand that the Bible is a translated experience Translation reflects the various ways in which the Bible has been mediated and appropriated throughout history It follows therefore that Bible translation as a global activity has been and continues to be influenced by the political and economic flows of history Race class ethnicity gender sexual orientation and other elements of our social locations directly influence the enterprise and results of Bible translation Higher Education, Community Engagement and Entrepreneurship in Southern Africa I. G. Govender,2021-02-24 This volume explores the pressing issues of entrepreneurship education and development in Southern Africa It discusses the various roles of higher education institutions in enhancing entrepreneurship in localised communities and provides a systematic solution for improving the Southern African economy by realising the importance of empowering the youth with entrepreneurial skills In addition successful development requires effective policies and contemporary approaches to both community engagement and entrepreneurship management The book uses different Southern African case studies to discuss the various issues and innovations in entrepreneurship in the country Sustainable Urban Futures in Africa Michael Addaney, Patrick Cobbinah, 2021-12-30 Sustainable Urban Futures in Africa provides a variety of conventional and emerging theoretical frameworks to inform understandings and responses to critical urban development issues such as urbanisation climate change housing slum informality urban sprawl urban ecosystem services and urban poverty among others within the context of the sustainable development goals SDGs in Africa This book addresses topics including challenges to spatial urban development how spatial planning is delivered how different urbanisation variables influence the development of different forms of urban systems and settlements in Africa how city authorities could use old and new methods of land administration to produce sustainable urban spaces in Africa and the role of local activism is causing important changes in the built environment Chapters are written by a diverse range of African scholars and practitioners in urban planning and policy design environmental science and policy sociology agriculture natural resources management environmental law and politics Urban Africa has huge resource potential both human and natural resources that can stimulate sustainable development when effectively harnessed Sustainable Urban Futures in Africa provides support for the SDGs in urban Africa and will be of interest to students and researchers professionals and policymakers and readers of urban studies spatial planning geography governance and other social sciences The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary Ballet Kathrina Farrugia-Kriel, Jill Nunes Jensen, 2021 Features viewpoints from dance scholars critics choreographers and dances Highlights contributions from choreographers around the globe Includes a significant range of cultural and historical contexts in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Book jacket How Social Movements Imagine Bobby Luthra Sinha, 2024-08-30 This book examines how micro contextual issues inspire collective social action forms against everyday situations of crises and crimes through an inter disciplinary ethnographic and comparative research conducted among Bishnois and Indian South Africans Exploring the role of the publics that practise and mobilise their social movement imaginations the work delves into peoples ability to move beyond their immediate contexts and politicise multiple social spaces and discursive spheres around them to project their causes Mapping an anti poaching movement spearheaded by the Bishnois of Western Rajasthan in India and an anti substance abuse movement led by the historical Indian diaspora of South Africa the author argues that such contemporary forms of organised social action replete with alternative frames symbols and repertoires possess key requisites to be understood as the Newer Social Movements of the Global South The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of social and protest movements migration and diaspora studies political science social anthropology and ethnography Rethinking Khoe and San Indigeneity, Language and Culture in Southern Africa Julie Grant, Keyan G.

Tomaselli,2022-09-19 The San hunter gatherers and Khoe herders of southern Africa were dispossessed of their land before during and after the European colonial period which started in 1652 They were often enslaved and forbidden from practicing their culture and speaking their languages In South Africa under apartheid after 1948 they were reclassified as Coloured which further undermined Khoe and San culture forcing them to reconfigure and realign their identities and loyalties Southern Africa is no longer under colonial or apartheid rule the San and Khoe however continue in the struggle to maintain the remnants of their languages and cultures and are marginalised by the dominant peoples of the region The San in particular continue to command very extensive research attention from a variety of disciplines from anthropology and linguistics to genetics They are however usually studied as static historical objects but they are not merely peoples of the past as is often assumed they are very much alive in contemporary society with cultural and language needs This book brings together studies from a range of disciplines to examine what it means to be Indigenous Khoe and San in contemporary southern Africa It considers the current constraints on Khoe and San identity language and culture constantly negotiating an indeterminate social positioning where they are treated as the inconvenient indigenous Usually studied as original anthropos but out of their time this book shifts attention from the past to the present and how the San have negotiated language literacy and identity for coping in the period of modernity It reveals that Afrikaans is indeed an African language incubated not only by Cape Malay slaves working in the kitchens of the early Dutch settlers but also by the Khoe and San who interacted with sailors from passing ships plying the West coast of southern Africa from the 14th century The book re examines the idea of literacy its relationship to language and how these shape identity The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies
